Those of us resisting the construction of High Speed Two are appealing to you now to support us in challenging HS2's route wide injunction proceedings.

HS2 Limited are seeking impunity from all protests through a route wide injunction against Persons Unknown against trespass on HS2 land and disruption to the construction process. Persons found to be in breach of this injunction will face prison sentences, large fines and seizure of assets. Through this intimidation, HS2 are seeking to silence protest against them.

Defending our right to protest

The scale and wide reaching nature of this injunction is unheard of. Injunctions are being used increasingly to suppress lawful protest and if HS2 get this injunction, it will set a dangerous precedent through which private companies can, in effect, pay for their own laws and to ## imprison their opponents.

However, it doesn't just affect activists. It also creates a dangerous situation for anyone who walks, lives and exists around the area owned by HS2 as you can break the injunction even for unknowingly being on their land.

We are raising money to pay the legal costs of challenging this outrageous injunction in court. HS2 have unlimited resources - paid for by the taxpayer - and spend hundreds of thousands on legal representation. The more money we raise, the better chance we have of challenging this draconian power grab and keeping our voices free to oppose this catastrophic construction project.

We need to challenge this now, and not let HS2 take our voices away.

What is a Route Wide Injunction and how will it affect me?

HS2 is seeking to injunct any land in their possession and against any activities that might cause disruption to the project across the entire route. This will mean anyone who is found on HS2 land or seen to be disrupting HS2 in any way will face prison, large fines or seizure of assets.

This injunction is not only targeted at known activists, but at normal people. It is against both named defendants and 'Persons Unknown' - meaning that even if you've never protested against HS2, you could be affected and face severe consequences for even unknowingly entering HS2 land or unknowingly interfering with work around unmarked HS2 compounds.

This means that anyone - whether you are putting up a banner or walking your dog - is liable to severe penalties. As HS2 rarely fence and signpost the land that they own, normal people are being put severely at risk by this overreaching injunction.

What does this mean for protest?

It is part of an extremely worrying trend in which injunctions are used to intimidate people from taking part in protest. Injunctions have been used to attempt to silence people opposing Fracking and have been used in areas of HS2 land.

The injunction HS2 are now trying to impose is extremely far reaching and almost unheard of within a legal setting. They go far beyond the scope of what an injunction is meant to be used for and effectively suppresses all lawful and legitimate protest.

What does this mean for the Stop HS2 Campaign?

HS2 are effectively seeking an end to lawful protests against them - including protest camps, actions against HS2 and the monitoring of HS2 activities. HS2 are also trying to set a dangerous precedent through which big businesses can simply brush away protests by intimidating opposition with the threat of prison by intimidating opposition with the threat of prison sentences, large fines and seizure of assets.

Protest camps have been holding HS2 to account since 2019, and have succeeded in raising awareness about the destructive nature of HS2 both socially and environmentally. HS2 have committed countless wildlife crimes, illegally evicted protestors. At a time where awareness of climate and social crisis is peaking, HS2 are effectively attempting to silence any opposition against them. Activists already put themselves on the line on a daily basis, and this injunction will further compound the risks they already take when standing up for the issues that affect us all.

We thank everyone who supports and engages in this campaign.

HS2 Injunction: HS2 Makes Sinister Attempt to Create a Second Tier of Corporate Policing to Silence Opposition

Lydia - April 13, 2022 - Press Release / News - 0 Comments

STOP HS2

HS2 Limited are seeking impunity from all protests through a route wide injunction, criminalising anyone who steps on land in possession of HS2. They are seeking an end to lawful protests against HS2 including protest camps, actions against HS2 and monitoring of HS2's activities – but they are also creating a dangerous and risky situation for anyone who walks, lives and exists around the area owned by HS2.

We are asking you today to join us in opposing this injunction, and stand up for the rights of people and the planet. If you can, please donate to our crowdfunder: <https://tinyurl.com/3pzjy7yc>.

HS2 seeks 140-mile-long injunction to deter protesters

News Home More from Local News

Monday, April 4th, 2022 7:00am

By Sam Dean

HS2 Ltd is appealing to the High Court this week for an injunction along the entire length of the construction of its high-speed rail line in an attempt to discourage further protests.

The hearing takes place on Tuesday and if granted the injunction will potentially make it a criminal offence for any persons to be on any land or property owned by HS2 Ltd without permission.

The move comes following years of disruption to the building of the controversial railway by protesters, who say the project is an unnecessary burden on the country's landscape and finances.

The final straw for HS2 seems to have been the protest camp at Bluebell Wood in Staffordshire, known as Cash's Pit Land, but there have been numerous others, most notoriously perhaps at Jones Hill Wood in Wendover, where activists lived underground in tunnels for 26 days in October last year.

As the particulars of the claim state: "...there are other significant Anti-HS2 Action activities which nevertheless continue to take place along the HS2 Land and experience has shown that the removal of the Defendants from the Cash's Pit Land is highly likely to mean that the issues are simply displaced to another part of the HS2 Land."

The injunction is being sought for all areas where construction is currently taking place, namely Phase 1, which runs from Euston Station in London to Great Haywood in Staffordshire, and phase 2a which goes on from Stafford to Crewe - approximately 140 miles in total.

A HS2 protest camp in Wendover in October 2021

Founder of StopHS2, Joe Rukin, told us: "HS2 are seeking to put in place what we believe is the largest injunction in British legal history without telling anyone.

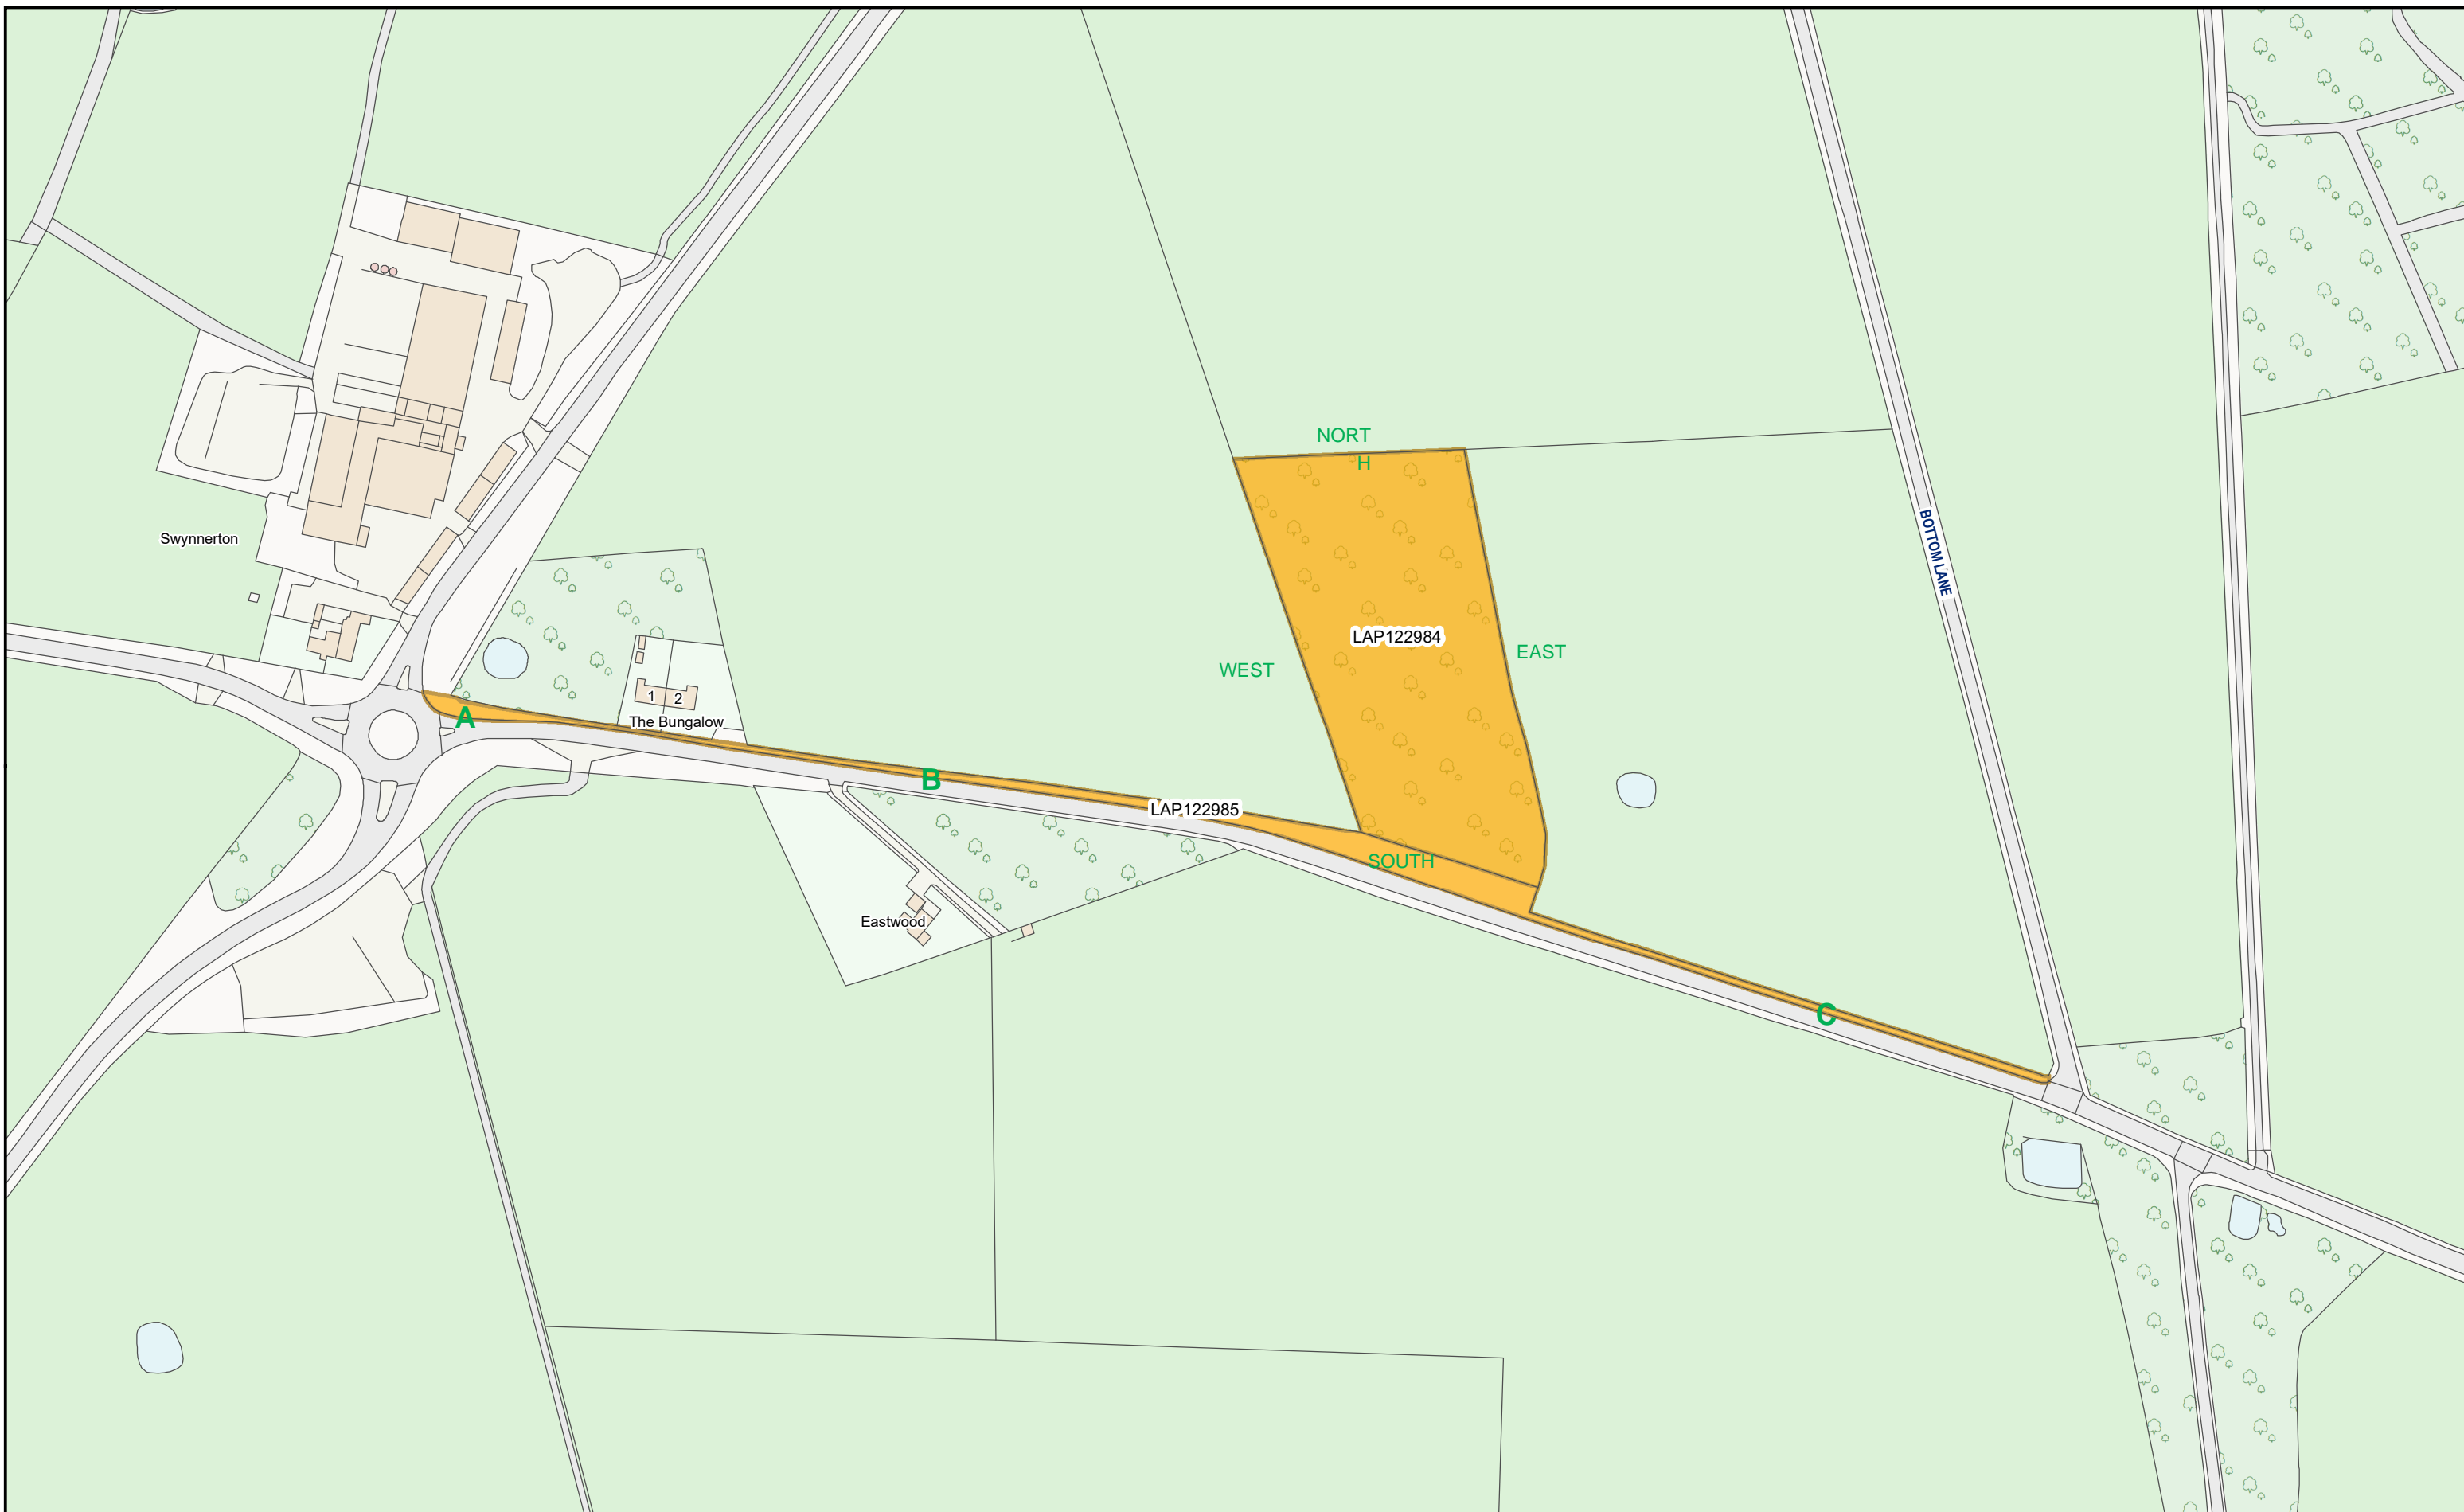

"If this injunction goes through it will mean being on any part of any land which HS2 will or have used could be a criminal offence.

"That's not just the work sites but every road it crosses, every house that they've bought, all the farmland they've used – even on a temporary basis that they've given back – all that land will be enjoined. It will be illegal to be in any of those places if this injunction goes ahead."

A HS2 spokesperson provided Bucks Radio with the following statement: "We can confirm that HS2 Ltd has applied to the High Court for an injunction along the HS2 line of route. If granted by the Court, we hope that this injunction will act as a significant deterrent to often violent activists, and reduces the incidences of trespass and obstruction on our worksites that endangers the health and safety of our staff and those protesting.

"The construction of HS2 is playing a vital role in Britain's economic recovery from the pandemic, with over 22,000 people already working on the project and tens of thousands of additional jobs supported through our supply chain. We urge everyone who cares about our natural environment to support a project that is providing work across the UK today, and in the future will get people out of cars, off planes and onto zero carbon rail travel."

The High Court hearing is at 10:30am on Tuesday, 5th April, at Birmingham Civil and Family Justice Centre.

BT unable to accept I paid 90-year-old uncle's bill

I care for my uncle who is 90 years old and has recently been diagnosed with dementia. On 11 March, I paid his BT phone bill online and my bank confirmed the payment of £72.87 had reached the account and sort code on the paper bill. But I had misquoted his BT account reference by one digit and, although no reminders were received, on 20 April BT blocked him from making outgoing calls. I have explained what happened in calls and emails to the missing payments department. I have also sent a letter to BT, with a copy of the transaction and proof that I have a lasting power of attorney (LPA). He has given permission over the phone numerous times to allow me to deal with his account but I have been told the LPA must be registered before BT can speak to me (I will do this once I receive a certified copy). I'm loth to pay the bill a second time without sorting out where the first payment has gone.

He lives alone and is frail. The phone is his lifeline.
JR, Tunbridge Wells

BT quickly restored your uncle's ability to make outgoing calls when you alerted it. But getting it to join the dots on the missing payment was a more painful process. You made a small mistake that had big consequences. Since we got in touch, BT has located the payment and is giving him a £30 credit to make up for some of the stress he experienced. BT says: "While making an online bill payment, the incorrect account number was entered, which caused restrictions on outgoing calls because payment was not received. We were made aware of this and rectified the issue on the same day. We have applied a gesture of goodwill to apologise for the inconvenience and have registered the customer with priority fault repair." Readers who have a chronic illness or are disabled might qualify for this scheme. To find out call 0800 800 150 and ask for the PHME 87190 form. There are strict criteria and applications require a doctor's or consultant's signature. You have also applied on his behalf for BT's protected services scheme for vulnerable people.

Do I have a hope of getting £530 flights deposit back?

Last summer I booked flights to New York for our family with Aer Lingus for a holiday in April 2022. After receiving the initial booking confirmation in July, I heard from Aer Lingus twice, in August 2021 and February 2022, to inform me of schedule changes. On 6 April 2022, I visited the Aer Lingus website to check in and discovered the booking had been cancelled in February because the balance had not been paid.

▲ Aer Lingus failed to send an email to remind a customer their balance was due before cancelling a booking PHOTOGRAPH: NURPHOTO/REX/SHUTTERSTOCK

This was a shock. I had not received a reminder. My complaint and request for the return of the £530 deposit has been rejected.

Do I have any hope of retrieving the money from Aer Lingus?
DF, Hebden Bridge

Well, the good news is that there is hope, as after we contacted it Aer Lingus relented and agreed to give you your money back. On its website it says that after 24 hours, the deposit paid on a booking is non-refundable. It also says it will send a reminder email when the balance is due, which in this instance it did not do. The airline says: "Aer Lingus offers customers travelling to or from North America the option to pay just 50% of their fare at the time of booking and pay the remaining balance 60 days before their travel date. In this case the balance was not paid within the communicated deadline, which resulted in the booking being cancelled." However, it adds: "We appreciate on this occasion the customer did not receive a reminder email advising her to pay the balance, and as a gesture of goodwill we have issued a refund for the deposit paid. We apologise for the inconvenience caused." The Consumer Champions inbox is bulging with complaints linked to Covid travel turmoil. # Back in black Brides break with Victorian tradition

Fleur Britten

On the fashion rental platform My Wardrobe HQ, there is a black tulle Dolce & Gabbana dress that has been worn "at least three times in the last month" as a wedding dress, said the firm's customer services adviser Rachel Higgins. "The customers say: 'Oh my God, it's the perfect dress.' I think the white [wedding] dress is seen as a bit dated now."

UK searches on Pinterest for black wedding dresses are up by 85% compared with last May, as brides-to-be rip up the rulebook and instead investigate looks that express their individuality.

"Who says you can't wear black?" asked Kate Halfpenny, of the bridal wear company Halfpenny London, who has introduced a "black edit" of her most distinctive silhouettes. "The past couple of years have taught us to seize every opportunity to be ourselves, and brides are choosing whatever their hearts desire."

It's a trend that has been rumbling along ever since Sarah Jessica Parker wore black to her

Black 'shakes up the traditional expectations of a wedding', says one designer - although white dresses date back only to Queen Victoria wedding in 1997, as did Pearl Lowe in 2008. In 2019, Christine Quinn of the US reality TV series Selling Sunset wore not one but two black wedding dresses, and in 2020 Chloë Sevigny covered her baby bump with black in a secret wedding.

"The pandemic brought about a real independence, with brides breaking with tradition," said Martha Tobyn, the founder of Anemone Style.

When the 33-year-old creative director Lydia Pang got married in 2019, she wore a black ruffled silk organza dress by Roberts Wood. "Everything about the wedding was about making sure we did it our way," she said. "Black is my absolute favourite colour - I find it flattering and it makes me feel confident and calm. I felt like the absolute best version of my daily self." Like many couples, Pang and her partner got engaged after being together for several years - so the symbolism of white just isn't relevant nowadays.

Of course, the choice for modern brides isn't just black or white - in between are colourful dresses, short dresses, jumpsuits, suits ... but black brings maximum impact. "Black shakes up the traditional expectations of a wedding - it goes against the grain," said Tobyn.

It was Queen Victoria who in 1840 popularised the white wedding dress when she married Prince Albert in a white, lace-covered gown. Before that, brides could choose any colour.

Government lacks 'will or care' to tackle ethnicity pay gap, say MPs

Alexandra Topping

A cross-party group of MPs has accused the government of lacking the "will or care" to create a fairer and more equal society, after it rejected calls to force companies to reveal the pay gap between white and other employees.

Yesterday the government said it intended to instead accept the recommendation of its controversial report on racial disparity, which was widely condemned by MPs, unions and equality campaigners as "divisive" and a missed opportunity for systemic change when it was published in March last year.

In February the cross-party women and equalities committee called for legislation to introduce mandatory reporting for companies with more than 250 employees, a requirement that has existed for the gender pay gap since 2017. It argued the move would help address pay disparities between employees from different ethnic backgrounds.

The government has backtracked on the issue since 2018, when the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy launched a consultation that stated: "The government believes it is time to move to mandatory ethnicity pay reporting." The consultation closed in January 2019, but the government is yet to publish a response.

The business minister Paul Scully promised in January the government would respond "in due course" - a commitment reiterated yesterday.

The government said it would not make companies report their ethnicity pay gap, as it would have "significant statistical and data issues" - instead saying it would give guidance to employers reporting their ethnicity pay gaps voluntarily.

The guidance includes advice on reporting the distinction between different ethnic groups and advice for regions with statistically low numbers of people from ethnic minorities.

Caroline Nokes, the Conservative chair of the women and equalities committee, said systems and structures were already in place for mandatory reporting. "The government's nonsensical response - which claims that gathering the necessary data would be too difficult, and then promptly outlines how this could easily be addressed - is disappointing. It makes clear that what is lacking in this administration is not resource or know-how, but the will or care to foster a fairer and more equal society."

In its response the government said it was accepting the Commission on Race and Ethnic Disparities recommendation that ethnicity pay gap reporting should remain voluntary.

 Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: Documents to be placed in Camden Town Library

Hello [REDACTED]

Your request has been forwarded to me as head of Camden's libraries.

It would be good to understand what is meant by public display in libraries in this context. If it's merely meant that the documents are made available to those who might seek to read them, we should be able to accommodate the files behind the enquiry desk. If, however, the expectation is that they be openly displayed in the library we'll have to consider where as space in the library is limited and in constant use for either shelving or study or public PC space.

The notice can be placed on the Camden Town Library notice board.

Once we've clarified HS2s requirements, I'll copy in Matthew Smith, Camden Town Library Manager, who'll take things forward from there.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Regards

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Injunction - Proof of docs in venues: Leamington Spa Library

Dear [REDACTED],

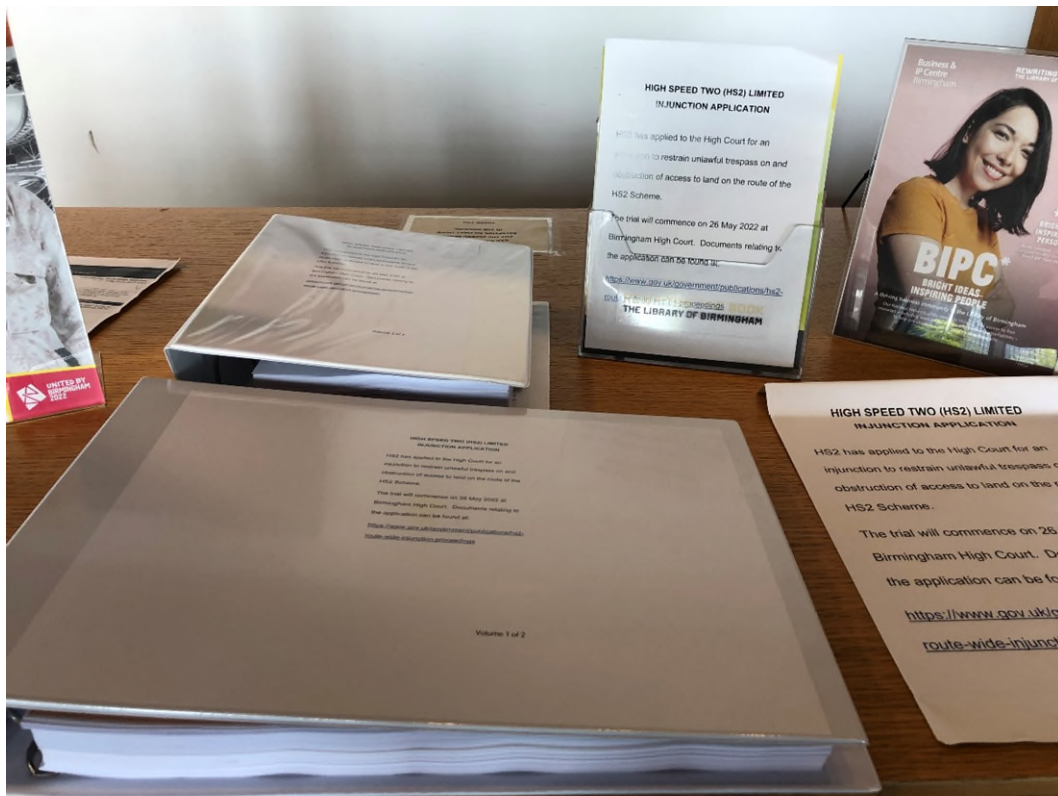

I can confirm that I attended the Library in Leamington Spa at approximately 4.30pm today (see attached photo for information/confirmation).

I asked the librarian if I could inspect the HS2 Injunction papers. The librarian confirmed to me that the papers had been received this morning, but that they would not be available for viewing by the public until tomorrow at 12 noon at the latest. The librarian refused to allow me to inspect the documents until then, even though they confirmed that they had been received.

I hope that this email is helpful. Please let me know if you would like me to inspect the documents tomorrow.

Regards,

ORIG-B-604

If you think that the council has spent money in a way that is not in the public interest or is otherwise unreasonable, you can request the auditor to report to the council on a particular item of account or to investigate a particular item. You do this by sending a formal request for an investigation to the auditor at the address below. The request must be in writing and copied to the council. In it, you must tell the auditor why you are objecting and what you want the auditor to do about it. The auditor must reach a decision on your objection. If you are not happy with that decision, you can appeal to the courts.

You may also object if you think that there is something in the accounts that the auditor should discuss with the Council or tell the public about in a public interest report. You must follow the same procedure as outlined in the previous paragraph. The auditor must then decide whether to take any action. The auditor does not have to, but usually will, give reasons for his/her decision and you cannot appeal to the courts. More information is available on the National Audit Office website (see contact details below).

You may not use this right to object to make a personal complaint or claim against your spend. You should take such complaints to your local Citizens Advice Bureau, local Law Centre or your solicitor. You may also be able to approach the Standards Committee of your local principal authority if you believe that a member of the council has broken the Code of Conduct for Members.

What else you can do

Instead of objecting, you can give the auditor information that is relevant to his/her responsibilities. For example, you can simply tell the auditor if you think that something is wrong with the accounts or about waste and efficiency in the way the Council runs its services. You should make it clear that you are providing information rather than making a formal objection. You do not have to follow any set form limits or procedures. The auditor does not have to give you a detailed report of any subsequent investigations, but will usually tell you the outcome.

A final word

Councils, and so local taxpayers, must meet the costs of dealing with questions and objections. In deciding whether to take your objection forward, one of a series of factors the auditor must take into account is the cost that will be involved. The auditor will only continue with the objection if it is in the public interest to do so. If you appeal to the courts, you might have to pay for the action yourself.

Who should you contact?

For more detailed guidance on election rights and the special powers of auditors, copies of the publication Council Accounts – a guide to your rights are available by calling the National Audit Office on 020 7738 7000 or downloading from the website <https://www.nao.gov.uk>

For information – nothing to do with the Parish Council

HS2 and the Secretary of State for Transport have applied for an injunction to prohibit unlawful trespass on and obstruction of access to land on the route of the HS2 Scheme.

The Court has ordered (subject to obtaining the consent) that the following be placed on public display along the route of the HS2 Scheme by 12 May 2022 in order to raise public awareness of the Court proceedings:

- a notice giving details of the claim and a link to where copies of the documents can be obtained online

We are also liaising with the council regarding copies of the documents in the court proceedings being available at some of the local libraries.

Dear Sir/Madam

Land: as per the enclosed schedule and plan

HIGH SPEED RAIL (LONDON – WEST MIDLANDS) ACT 2017 – notice of temporary possession

The new high speed rail line between London and the West Midlands, known as HS2, received Parliamentary approval in February 2017. Initial investigation works began in early 2017 as part of the preparation for constructing HS2.

I am writing to you because, as you may be aware, your land and/or property has been identified as being required during the construction of HS2. I understand that this may be distressing news and I want to reassure you that my team are here to help you through the process and answer any questions you may have.

Attached is a formal legal notice which authorises High Speed Two (HS2) Limited (HS2 Ltd) (as Nominated Undertaker) to take temporary possession of your land and/or property for the project, as well as a plan of your land and/or property, shown in green.

HS2 Ltd is committed to ensuring our works are conducted in a professional manner and completed to a good standard. HS2 Ltd and its contractors are required to leave your land within one year of the completion of the project works carried out on your land (unless we require the land permanently). HS2 Ltd must restore the land, and this will be agreed with the owners of the land and the relevant planning authority (or in the event that agreement cannot be reached between those parties as determined by the appropriate Ministers of State).

You may be entitled to compensation for any loss you may experience from HS2's temporary possession of your land and/or property. We recommend you appoint professional advisors in respect of any compensation claim, the reasonable costs of any successful claim will be paid by HS2 Ltd. To make a claim, write in the first instance to Land and Property Compensation Claims, High Speed Two (HS2) Limited, Two Snowhill, Snow Hill Queensway, Birmingham B4 6GA.

NOTICE OF TEMPORARY POSSESSION OF LAND

To:

Notice No. N-088581

[REDACTED]

By virtue of Section 15 and Paragraphs 1(1) or 1(2) of Part 1 of Schedule 16 of the High Speed Rail (London – West Midlands) Act 2017 (“the Act”) I HEREBY GIVE YOU NOTICE that High Speed Two (HS2) Limited (HS2 Ltd) as the Nominated Undertaker appointed by the Secretary of State for Transport pursuant to Section 45 of the Act will enter upon and take possession of the land described in the Schedule hereto and shown coloured green or coloured green and hatched over on the plan(s) annexed hereto after the period of 28 days from the date of service of this notice, for any works or other Phase One purpose as is authorised by Schedule 16 of the Act.

You are served with this notice in accordance with paragraph 4(1) of Part 1 of Schedule 16 to the Act, pursuant to which the provisions of Section 15 and Schedule 16 of the Act shall apply to your interest in the land referred to in the attached Schedule.

In accordance with Schedule 16 of the Act, the Nominated Undertaker may, in connection with the construction of the works authorised by the Act, enter upon and take temporary possession of the land. The Nominated Undertaker must give not less than 28 days’ notice of its intention to enter and take possession of the land. The Nominated Undertaker may not remain in possession of the land for longer than one year after the completion of the works unless the owner agrees to a longer period or, unless the provisions of Paragraph 4(3) of Schedule 16 apply, and within that period powers are exercised under the Act to serve a Notice to Treat or execute a General Vesting Declaration over the land.

Under paragraphs 9(1) and 10(1) of Schedule 16 to the Act, all private and general rights over land of which HS2 Ltd takes possession under paragraphs 1(1) or (2) of Schedule 16 are suspended and unenforceable for as long as the HS2 Ltd remains in lawful possession of the land. Under paragraph 9(2) and 10(2) of Schedule 16, HS2 Ltd may, in relation to a private or general right, direct that paragraph 9 (1) or 10(1) does not apply to the right, or that it applies to the right only to the extent specified in that direction. Directions made under paragraphs 9(1) or 10(1) to be effective from the date of this Notice appear in the Schedule hereto. The Nominated Undertaker may make further directions (including revoking or amending existing directions) after the date of this Notice or confer such rights on the landowner or other parties as it may specify in the Schedule hereto during the period for which the land is subject to temporary possession.

In the event that the Nominated Undertaker is refused the possession required under this notice it has the power to issue a warrant to the High Court Enforcement Officer to enforce these rights. The High Court Enforcement Officer will be able to enter the property to secure possession.

Paragraph 4(4) of Schedule 16 provides that compensation must be paid by the Nominated Undertaker to the owners and occupiers of land over which temporary possession is taken for any loss which is suffered by reason of the temporary occupation of the land.

Dear Owner

Land: as per the enclosed schedule and plan

HIGH SPEED RAIL (LONDON – WEST MIDLANDS) ACT 2017 – notice of temporary possession

The new high speed rail line between London and the West Midlands, known as HS2, received Parliamentary approval in February 2017. Initial investigation works began in early 2017 as part of the preparation for constructing HS2.

I am writing to you because, as you may be aware, your land and/or property has been identified as being required during the construction of HS2. I understand that this may be distressing news and I want to reassure you that my team are here to help you through the process and answer any questions you may have.

Attached is a formal legal notice which authorises High Speed Two (HS2) Limited (HS2 Ltd) (as Nominated Undertaker) to take temporary possession of your land and/or property for the project, as well as a plan of your land and/or property, shown in green.

HS2 Ltd is committed to ensuring our works are conducted in a professional manner and completed to a good standard. HS2 Ltd and its contractors are required to leave your land within one year of the completion of the project works carried out on your land (unless we require the land permanently). HS2 Ltd must restore the land, and this will be agreed with the owners of the land and the relevant planning authority (or in the event that agreement cannot be reached between those parties as determined by the appropriate Ministers of State).

You may be entitled to compensation for any loss you may experience from HS2's temporary possession of your land and/or property. We recommend you appoint professional advisors in respect of any compensation claim, the reasonable costs of any successful claim will be paid by HS2 Ltd. To make a claim, write in the first instance to Land and Property Compensation Claims, High Speed Two (HS2) Limited, Two Snowhill, Snow Hill Queensway, Birmingham B4 6GA.

To:
The Owner
Dismantled railway (Great Central Railway), woodland and access track
Jubilee Nature Reserve
Gawcott Road
Twyford

Notice No. N-088583

By virtue of Section 15 and Paragraphs 1(1) or 1(2) of Part 1 of Schedule 16 of the High Speed Rail (London – West Midlands) Act 2017 (“the Act”) I HEREBY GIVE YOU NOTICE that High Speed Two (HS2) Limited (HS2 Ltd) as the Nominated Undertaker appointed by the Secretary of State for Transport pursuant to Section 45 of the Act will enter upon and take possession of the land described in the Schedule hereto and shown coloured green or coloured green and hatched over on the plan(s) annexed hereto after the period of 28 days from the date of service of this notice, for any works or other Phase One purpose as is authorised by Schedule 16 of the Act.

You are served with this notice in accordance with paragraph 4(1) of Part 1 of Schedule 16 to the Act, pursuant to which the provisions of Section 15 and Schedule 16 of the Act shall apply to your interest in the land referred to in the attached Schedule.

In accordance with Schedule 16 of the Act, the Nominated Undertaker may, in connection with the construction of the works authorised by the Act, enter upon and take temporary possession of the land. The Nominated Undertaker must give not less than 28 days’ notice of its intention to enter and take possession of the land. Schedule hereto. The Nominated Undertaker may make further directions (including revoking or amending existing directions) after the date of this Notice or confer such rights on the landowner or other parties as it may specify in the Schedule hereto during the period for which the land is subject to temporary possession.

In the event that the Nominated Undertaker is refused the possession required under this notice it has the power to issue a warrant to the High Court Enforcement Officer to enforce these rights. The High Court Enforcement Officer will be able to enter the property to secure possession.

Our mission statement at Bluebell Woods is to work in harmony with the community in order to raise awareness of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill, as well as to. We wish to also build a movement that will put pressure on HS2 Ltd.

Bluebell Woods is named after the beautiful bluebells which carpet the woods, so we are accessing the woods through a field and tread lightly throughout the forest.

To build a strong community here, the bedrock of any movement, we need some funding. This funding will not only fund grassroots activists in their full time work against the system that is causing many issues. It will also help us build up an amazing project renovating the camp into something ter can be proud of. We are planning to build structures in order to defend the land to build structures in order to defend the land, whilst living amongst nature.

Please help us on this journey and I hope you keep an eye out for updates. If you can't give try and visit us for a cuppa by a warm fire!

Lots of love, Bluebell Woods

10 June 2022 by James Knaggs, Beneficiary

✘ Day 32 in the tunnels!

Euston Square gardens tunnel was 31 days long!

✘ Wendover active resistance camp was a 41 day eviction with 29 days underground!

✘ The UK protest tunnel record for days underground, is 6 weeks long!

✘ The Bluebell tunnellers are on day 32 and still going strong and looking at the record for U.K. tunnel eviction history

The bailiffs haven't even begun to dig them out, nor will they!

We have had word from the tunnellers and they have said the bailiffs, in their own words , "are as good as torturing them." They are Keeping them up all night with threats of prison, loud repetitive banging, inexcusable drilling and of course the endless mindgames as well as the inhumane starving of oxygen! Moreover, Gary Payton, one of the HS2 bosses, has instructed the security and bailiffs not to talk to the tunnellers. Despite this, the tunnellers don't want to see a divide between themselves and the workers! They think it's a shame HS2 bosses wish to dehumanise and divide them. In the spirit of this they wish to humanise the security that have spoken to them! The tunnellers state that they know they can't save the woodlands, HS2 have chosen to condemn it, they know their actions are just performative yet principled but they can be "damned sure the workers get a pay out"

Despite the inhuman treatment the tunnels see that the workers are in a system that does not serve them. The tunnellers recognise their protests is the bread and butter for so many working class people, so have vowed to stay to make sure they can pay for things like, their extremely ill family members care or help buy a house for their young family. We recognise HS2 does nothing for the issues society faces! It does nothing to help people with the seemingly impossible task of being able to afford to live! But we can be able human and respect each other. We hope the security and HS2 recognise that the tunnellers are putting their lives and freedoms at risk to feed your families in a time of drastic instability!

The injunction on bluebell means that the tunnellers will face horrific consequences and costs as well as be dragged through the courts and justice system. They will most likely be very tired and in need of rest and dealing with residual stress. They will also be suffering from muscle loss and other health issue. They make this enormous sacrifice because of deeply held principles about the climate crisis and corporate oppression. With that in mind, we really need some funds to support them when they leave! We need funds because they will need help to cover costs for their emails, commissary money & travel costs, should they go to jail, there maybe legal fines/fees that need covering, as well as the cost of getting to and from court!

All the people down there are No Fixed abode and will need help resettling! Please help them because you recognise their sacrifices!

Look, we wouldn't have been able to build a huge camp, plus three others, fight three injunctions in the courts, have a sustained local protest or support all our hard working activists without the community and your donations! Every nail, every Peice of wood was given by the community! The money in the Gofundme looks like a lot but we have spent it on all of the above! So thankyou! Thank you because it wouldn't have been possible without you!

Let's see if the tunnellers get the protest tunnel record as it day 302

Thankyou for all your support over the year we have been here! Since our last update we have built loads within bluebell woods and even started a new sister camp down the road! A lot of your donations have gone a long way in supporting us and helping us manage to build as well as campaign! Alas we have had a difficult few months as Balfour Beatty put an injunction on the gate we liked to exercise our rights and protest at! HS2 took possession of the woodland we are in and launched a 140 mile route wide injunction court proceedings against us and "persons unknown" which basically means everyone! Alas we are under imminent eviction threat!! This brings its own stresses and woes but we are principled bunch and will stay strong!

The route wide injunction has cost us a significant amount of our budget as it's such a wide ranging court case and David and Goliath in nature we had to use the donations here to instruct a barrister! We are now crowdfunding on crowdjustice.com a platform where all the fund go directly to the solicitors so that they can adequately defend our rights! If you would like to help us please click the link below!

Thankyou again, honestly we wouldn't be so successful or be able to do this without you.

SENTENCING REMARKS OF MR JUSTICE RITCHIE

You were not in court initially. You took no part in the proceedings until today. You said in evidence that you had not known of injunction and the committal application. I reject your evidence that you were unaware. You received the documents but you chose not to read them. You ignored multiple [oral] warnings. You were a regular and integral part of the direct action process. I judge that your breaches were serious and that you did not care about the court's order. You do not consider yourself bound by civil justice. You do not recognise authority of court. Your actions were deliberate and contemptuous.

Your culpability is moderate. You did not take part in the tunnel protest. You put no one's life at risk.

The harm includes the huge expense to taxpayer's arise from the direct action protest. That harm also involved wasting the time and effort of HS2 staff, police and the emergency services, The limited taxpayers resources of our society would be better spent on other needy issues rather than chasing around after you on your civil disobedience games.

You have little insight into the impact of your actions. You have shown no remorse nor made a real apology. You said that you refused to apologise for your contempt. You said "I don't read court orders" in a cocky and offhand way. You plan to continue direct access. Your thumbs up was grossly unhelpful.

There is very little mitigation advanced. You have no relevant antecedents, you were non-violent and non-threatening. I only just accept that you appear to be a conscientious objector. I find as a fact that you are verging towards being a chaos merchant. I take into account that you did not promise to cease direct action involving breaches of civil law and injunctions. I take into account that you have now admitted the breaches.

In my view, these factors take you well past the custody threshold.

I fine you £1,500 as part of your punishment for the breaches.

However, a fine would not be sufficient punishment, nor would it have sufficient effect on your thinking. I pass sentence of imprisonment for a term of 100 days.

I have considered suspending but your utter disregard for the court has prevented me from suspending term. You will be entitled to release after 50 days and you may appeal.

27/7/2022

I wish to say that I am sorry for my part in HS2 tunnel occupation on the Cash's Pit Land. I regret going down there and regret the amount of time for which I stayed.

I still feel as strongly now about the destruction of the environment as I ever have. However, I have decided to channel my energies into action in a constructive way, by attending college to learn about, and hopefully eventually work in the field of, sustainable energy.

I will continue to devote my life to living as greenly as I can and minimising any environmental harm that I might unwittingly be a part of. I plan to tread as lightly on the earth as possible. I simply will not be involved in obstructing the progress of HS2 from this point. I feel I can make more difference, and effect more meaningful change, by taking positive steps to improve things myself than I can by obstructing HS2

For those that don't know David Holiday ... he has 1 small conviction against him for HS2 protest. He had 7 charges which gave Thames Valley Police 'reason' to give Dave an injunction saying he's not allowed anywhere near anything remotely to do with HS2. As the charges got to court, they were either dropped before being tried or he was found not guilty apart from one minor charge. The injunction was served to him with their evidence for it being all these charges that went nowhere. So surely that makes the injunction illegal. He's currently in prison for breaking an injunction by standing on a piece of land that apparently belonged to HS2 but wasn't in any way sign posted. So he's in prison for standing in a field. Dave is not a criminal but a protestor who wants to ensure democracy is upheld and the environment is given the attention it deserves. Dave is very good at asking HS2 workers and the police difficult questions and is very persistent and even annoying at times and he's without remorse for his actions, but none of that should not be treated like a crime! He's a pacifist!

He's really missing music so if you don't know

We've left the prison! We spoke to David Holiday and his appeal is next week. There's work to be done if he doesn't get that, but for now we've made his time that much easier knowing we were there. No doubt he loved being asked to tell us to leave...and also knew we would go when we were ready 😊. Spoke to many people including screws who are all against HS2 and are watching the devastation of Birmingham happening right now . Even police officers were trying to tell us that but we were over talking to them 😊

Keep your emails coming as he has access to the account even if he's out of prison...Disappearing Dave@protonmail.com

I really have been fine – this is not my first time in prison, part of the reason I got into this game is that I knew I could see it through to whatever conclusion came (also am still a little bit angry and bitter at this so-called 'justice' system 😊)

Just got this email as they moved me to a new pad. My first padmate was cool, have not met my new one yet, but he has an Xbox and I'm listening to 70's hits on TV waiting for him to get back from chapel.

It's nice to know I'm not forgotten, so thanks a lot for your message. I'll appeal and be out soon enough 😊

Reply from Dave received today (5/8/22)

Hello, my standard reply to "How are you" is "same as always, round about 80%, thanks for asking".

This time I'll add "chillin like a villain!" Haha!

Please feel free to share any of my details or this reply to anyone.

The emails here at HMP Birmingham come printed, with a piece of paper to reply. Hopefully it's easy enough to read my handwriting – I assume someone will type it out for you or send a picture of this to you.
