

Offshore Petroleum Regulator
for Environment & Decommissioning

OPRED on-call availability – Wednesday 10th May 2023.

Please be advised that due to strike action being taken by Met Office Prospect trade union staff, the Met Office weather centre will not be answering calls between midnight - 07:00hrs and 19:00hrs – midnight on Wednesday 10th May.

Any calls to be made to the Met Office in order to contact the OPRED on-call inspector will need to wait until after these periods. Please advise relevant offshore and on-call staff accordingly.
