

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr D Murphy

Respondent: The Beehive Inn

Reconsideration Judgment

1. The claimant's claim of unfair dismissal remains struck out.
2. The claimant's claim for unpaid salary is not struck out and will proceed to a final hearing in due course.

REASONS

1. The claimant's claim of unfair dismissal was correctly struck out because the claimant lacked the service needed to make a claim of unfair dismissal.
2. The judgment striking out the claimant's unfair dismissal claim was unclear in that it could be interpreted as having struck out all claims made. That was not the intention of the judgment.
3. The claimant does not need any minimum length of service to pursue a claim for unpaid wages, and as such his claim in this regard should not be struck out, and will now proceed to a final hearing to be listed in due course.
