JUDGMENT ON RECONSIDERATION

1. The Respondent's application to set aside the Judgment of EJ Siddall dated 22 June 2022 is allowed.
2. The Judgement is set aside.
3. The Respondent has permission to rely upon the Grounds and Resistance and Counter Claim attached to their ET3.
4. By 4pm 16 May 2023 the parties are to write to the Tribunal with dates to avoid until the end of December 2023. The matter is then to be listed for a hearing before an Employment Judge sitting alone on the first open date after 6 July 2023 with a time estimate of three hours.
5. By 4pm 30 May 2023 the parties are to file at the Tribunal, and serve upon each other, the following:
 - a. Witness statements from anyone giving evidence on behalf of a party. This includes the Claimant herself.
 - b. Any documentary evidence a party seeks to rely upon. This includes text messages and emails or similar along with hard copy documents.
 - c. A schedule of loss
6. The parties are encouraged to engage the services of ACAS in helping them to, at least, narrow the issues before the final hearing.
7. The Claimant's address be amended for all future communications to: 12 Chalgrove Road, London, N17 0NP
