Application for an additional period of Restored War Widows/War Widowers Pension

Application Form

This form is for you to make an application for an additional period of payment due to the estate of a person who received a Restored Widows Pension (RWP).

You should use this form where;

- You are the person responsible for the estate, the beneficiary of the estate or the next of kin of a person who received a RWP and
- The original War Widows/Widowers Pension (WWP) was paid because the serviceperson died in service and
- The WWP ceased because a new relationship was formed, and that relationship ended and
- The RWP was not paid from 19 July 1995 where the later marriage had ended before that date or
- The RWP was not paid from 7 April 1997 where the later living with a partner had ended before that date or
- The RWP was not paid from the day after the later relationship ended if it was after the above dates.

There will not be any further payment due where the later relationship ended on or after 9 April 2018.

What you need to do

In this form there are clearly headed sections for information which is required and for helpful information. Please complete the required information and any other information you have to hand. We will contact you if further information is needed.

Please complete the form, sign and date the declaration, and return it to us at the address above.

We need documents to show why you are the person entitled to apply such as a will, grant of probate, letters of administration or certificates to show that you are the next of kin.

It will be helpful to have copies of any forms or letters that show how the RWP recipient's marriages or civil partnerships ended and any documents which show that they were in receipt of a WWP and a RWP.

If you send us any original certificates or documents, we will photocopy them and send them back to you as soon as we can.

Information about the progress of this exercise can be found on www.gov.uk
This information will be updated regularly.

How the MOD collects and uses personal information

The Ministry of Defence (MOD) is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal data and the MOD Privacy notice explains your rights and provides information that you are entitled to under UK data protection legislation. It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice that may be provided when we collect or process personal information about you so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information. The MOD Personal information charter contains the standards you can expect when we ask for, hold, or share your personal information and your rights under the law.

Part 8 – Payment directly into an account

We normally make payment direct into an account

You can use a bank, building society or other account provider. Many banks and building societies will let you collect cash at the post office.

How we will pay you

We will pay you directly into your account. If you think your payment is wrong, get in touch with us straight away. We have the right to recover any money paid to you which you are not entitled to.

What to do now

- tell us about the account you want to use. By giving your account details you are agreeing to be paid by Direct Payment and understand the information on this page about being overpaid.
- if you do not yet have an account but intend to open one, please give us your account details as soon as you have them, in the meantime return the completed form to us.
- if you do not have an account, please contact us and we will give you more information.

Part 9 – About the account you want to use

Please tell us your account details below. It is very important you complete ALL boxes correctly including the building society roll or reference number if you have one. If you tell us the wrong account details your payment may be delayed or you may lose money.

You can find the account details on the cheque book, passbook or statements. If you are not sure about the details, ask the bank, building society or other account provider.

You can use

- an account in your name
- a joint account, or
- someone else's account, subject to the terms and conditions of the account and as long as you have the other person's permission and authorise them to use the money in the way you tell them.
- if you are an Appointee or a legal representative acting on behalf of the customer, the account should be in your name only.
- to be paid into a credit union account you must provide the credit union's account details. Your credit union will be able to help you with this.

Name of the account holder

Please write the name of the account holder, exactly as it is shown on the cheque book or statement.

Full name of bank, building society or other account provider

Sort code

Please tell us all six numbers. For example, 12-34-56

Account Number

Most account numbers are 8 numbers long. If your account has fewer than 10 numbers, please fill in the numbers from the left

If you are using a building society account, you may need to tell us the roll or reference number. This may be made up of letters and numbers and may be up to 18 characters long. If you are not sure if the account has a roll or reference number, ask the building society.
