

Permitting decisions- Surrender

We have decided to accept the surrender of the permit for Adlington Poultry Farm operated by Mr Clifford Devon (Trading as Devon Eggs)

The permit number is EPR/ZP3134UE/S003

We are satisfied that the necessary measures have been taken to avoid any pollution risk and to return the site to a satisfactory state. We consider in reaching this decision that we have taken into account all relevant considerations and legal requirements.

Purpose of this document

This decision document provides a record of the decision-making process. It:

- highlights key issues in the determination
- summarises the decision-making process in the decisions considerations section to show how all relevant factors have been taken into account

Read the permitting decisions in conjunction with the environmental permit

Key issues of the decision

This installation is an intensive farm poultry unit installation. The application is for a full surrender.

Conclusion

We have reviewed the surrender application and noted that the farm has not operated since 2021 and has been cleaned down.

We have confirmed with our local area team that this is a low risk surrender and site is clean in an acceptable condition to surrender.

Hence overall the installation considered in a satisfactory state to allow permit surrender.
