Appeal a War Pension or Armed Forces Compensation Scheme decision

Use this form to appeal against a decision made by the Secretary of State as administered by Veterans UK.

You can appeal against:

- the refusal of an award or level of entitlement
- the level of an award
- the date an award starts
- changes to the amount or duration of an award
- the label (medical name given for a claimed condition)

You must appeal within 12 months of the date on your decision letter. If you miss this deadline you will have to ask the tribunal for more time in Section 7.

If you need help

Contact the tribunal office if you need help with this application or tribunal procedures.

The tribunal cannot give legal advice.

No

Note for Section 6

If the decision you are appealing was made under the Armed Forces Compensation Scheme (AFCS), you may have asked the Secretary of State to look again at your claim after you received notification of the decision. This is called a Reconsideration. If there is no Reconsideration, the tribunal will refer your form to Veterans UK to reconsider the decision. This is a legal requirement.

Section 7 – Late appeals

7.1 You must send your appeal to the tribunal no later than 12 months after the date on your decision letter. If your appeal is received after this date, the tribunal will need to know why it is late and will decide whether to extend the deadline for your appeal. If your appeal is late, explain your reasons here:

Note for Section 7

Appellants can seek support from their representative or appointee to add reasons for a late appeal.

UKSF confidentiality contract

Those who have signed the UKSF Confidentiality Contract must ensure that the UKSF Disclosure Cell is contacted for advice and review of any documents being submitted with your appeal.

Those who have not signed the UKSF Confidentiality Contract but have served with UKSF should also seek advice from the UKSF Disclosure Cell and ensure no unauthorised disclosures are made as part of their appeal.

I, the appellant, confirm that I have signed the confidentiality contract with UKSF and ensured that no unauthorised disclosures were made. I have sought advice from and sent documents enclosed to the UKSF Disclosure Cell for review and redaction, and have permission to make such statements.
