Dear [REDACTED]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information about the Ivory trade, which the Animal and Plant Health Agency (APHA) received on 06 March 2023. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000.

The information you requested and the response is detailed below:

“Since the enactment of the Ivory Act into law I would like to know:

How many items have been registered since the Ivory Act came into force?”

- 5388

“How many exemption certificates have been applied for and how many have been successfully issued?”

- 120 received and 91 applications granted

“How many items have been sold/transferred to museums?”

- Qualifying museums are exempt, therefore this information is not held.

“How many enforcement actions have been completed?”

- Nil

“How many enforcement actions are underway?”

- None

Please find a link to the GOV.UK pages for Guidance: Declare ivory you intend to sell or hire out <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/declare-ivory-you-intend-to-sell-or-hire-out>

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOI and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

An Annex is attached which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you and contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the Access to Information Team at the email address below or postal address at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 11 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Manager at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The ICO can be contacted at:
