

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms H Allahwala

Respondent: Home Office

JUDGMENT

The claimant's application dated 3 July 2023 for reconsideration of the judgment sent to the parties on 20 June 2023 is refused.

REASONS

There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked for the following reasons:

1. Questions regarding the Claimant's health and the state of preparation of the hearing were considered at the start of the hearing and the Claimant's application discloses nothing that suggests reasonable prospects of varying or revoking the decision to proceed with the hearing.
2. Questions regarding the scope of the issues in the case were considered at length at various points during the hearing and the Claimant's application discloses nothing that suggests reasonable prospects of varying or revoking the decision to proceed with the issues as formulated before the Tribunal.
3. The Claimant's reconsideration application in large part repeats and/or comments on evidence covered during the hearing and which the Tribunal was already aware of when reaching its judgment and which the Claimant either highlighted or commented on competently during the hearing.

4. Whilst the Claimant refers at points to what appears to be new evidence or evidence that the Tribunal was not explicitly taken to during the hearing, none of this suggests reasonable prospects of varying or revoking the judgment reached by the Tribunal.
