Dear ██████████

RE: Request for Information – RFI4404

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

Any applications/enquiries, assessments, models, guidance, correspondence, meetings with reference to the proposed site allocation (PS37) in the Stroud District Council draft local plan. As this site has now been examined in public and costs shared with the Planning Inspector and participants.

The proposed site is within the Slimbridge Parish, Gloucestershire.

This request relates to the period 27th April 2023 to current date 2023.

It would be helpful if you were to provide any brief notes which might be necessary to understand the context of the information provided, although I recognise that you are not obliged to do this.

Response

We can confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request.

To conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our High Growth and New Settlements team who would have the requested information if held.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.

The full text of section 1 in the legislation can be found here:

<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2000/36/section/1>

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA. To comply with this duty, we can confirm that we do not hold any information from the period of 27 April 2023 to present (as at 28 June 2023). We can also confirm that there have been no further discussions in relation to the proposed development and that we have already disclosed some information up to the period of 31 January 2023. This information has been disclosed in a previous freedom of information request which is published on our Disclosure Log and can be found under the reference RFI4224 via the below link:

Your request for review must be made in writing, explain why you wish to appeal, and be received within 40 working days of the date of this response. Failure to meet this criteria may lead to your request being refused.

Upon receipt, your request for review will be passed to an independent party not involved in your original request. We aim to issue a response within 20 working days.

You may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) however, the Information Commissioner does usually expect the internal review procedure to be exhausted in the first instance.

The Information Commissioner's details can be found via the following link:
