RECOGNISING the Parties’ respective autonomy and rights to regulate within their territories in order to achieve legitimate public policy objectives such as the protection and promotion of public health, education, labour standards, social services, safety, the environment including climate change, and animal welfare;

RECOGNISING the strong and mutually supportive relationship between trade and innovation, and the contribution of both to economic growth and addressing shared challenges, and affirming the Parties’ commitment to expanding their cooperation in this area;

CHAPTER 1

INITIAL PROVISIONS AND GENERAL DEFINITIONS

Article 1.1 Establishment of a Free Trade Area

The Parties, consistent with Article XXIV of GATT 1994 and Article V of GATS, hereby establish a free trade area in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

Article 1.2 Relation to Other Agreements

1. The Parties affirm their existing rights and obligations with respect to each other under existing international agreements to which both Parties are party, including the WTO Agreement.
2. If a Party considers that a provision of this Agreement is inconsistent with a provision of another agreement to which it and the other Party are party, the Parties shall, on request, consult with a view to reaching a mutually satisfactory solution. This paragraph is without prejudice to a Party's rights and obligations under Chapter 30 (Dispute Settlement).<sup>1</sup>
3. For as long as the Protocol on Ireland/Northern Ireland to the Agreement on the Withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community, signed in London and Brussels on 24 January 2020 (the "Protocol") is in force,<sup>2</sup> nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the United Kingdom from adopting or maintaining measures, or refraining from doing so, further to the Protocol, and amendments thereto and subsequent agreements replacing parts thereof, provided that such measures, or the absence of such measures, are not used as a means of arbitrary or unjustified discrimination against the other Party or as a disguised restriction on trade.

<sup>1</sup> For the purposes of application of this Agreement, the Parties agree that the fact that an agreement provides more favourable treatment of goods, services, investments or persons than that provided for under this Agreement does not mean that there is an inconsistency within the meaning of paragraph 2.

<sup>2</sup> The Parties note in particular that arrangements for democratic consent specified at Article 18 of the Protocol may result in Articles 5 through 10, and other provisions of the Protocol dependent on the same Articles for their application, ceasing to apply to the United Kingdom in accordance with the arrangements specified at Article 18.

4. On request of either Party, the Parties shall hold consultations, in relation to the effects of a measure described in paragraph 3 the United Kingdom has adopted, or absence thereof,<sup>3</sup> on this Agreement and seek a mutually acceptable solution.<sup>4</sup>

5. If the requesting Party considers that the subject of the request under paragraph 1 is urgent or involves perishable goods, it may request that technical consultations take place within a shorter time frame than that provided for under paragraph 2. The responding Party shall give prompt and reasonable consideration to that request.
6. The technical consultations under this Article shall be without prejudice to each Party's rights and obligations pertaining to dispute settlement proceedings under Chapter 30 (Dispute Settlement) and the WTO Agreement.

Article 2.9 Import and Export Restrictions

A Party shall publish on an official government website any new or modified import licensing procedure, including any information that it is required to publish under Article 1.4(a) of the Import Licensing Agreement. To the extent possible, the Party shall do so at least 21 days before the new procedure or modification takes effect.
3. In respect of any import licensing procedures, each Party's notifications to the WTO Committee on Import Licensing under the Import Licensing Agreement shall describe any limitations on permissible end users of the product and any conditions the Party imposes on eligibility for obtaining a licence to import the product.

4. At the request of a Party, the other Party shall, with regard to any import licensing procedures that it has adopted or maintains, or changes to existing import licensing procedures:
  - (a) promptly provide the information specified in Article 5(2) of the Import Licensing Agreement, where that information has not been notified to the WTO Committee on Import Licensing provided for in Article 4 of the Import Licensing Agreement; and
  - (b) promptly and to the extent possible provide any other relevant information.

Article 2.11 Administrative Fees and Formalities

1. Each Party shall ensure, in accordance with Article VIII:1 of GATT 1994, that all fees and charges of whatever character (other than export taxes, custom duties, charges equivalent to an internal tax or other internal charge applied consistently with Article III:2 of GATT 1994, and antidumping and countervailing duties) imposed on or in connection with importation or exportation are limited in amount to the approximate cost of services rendered, and do not represent an indirect protection to domestic goods of a taxation of imports or exports for fiscal purposes.
2. Neither Party shall require consular transactions, including related fees and charges, in connection with the importation of a good of the other Party.
3. Each Party shall make publicly available online a current list of the fees and charges it imposes in connection with importation or exportation, including any updates or changes to such fees and charges. An adequate time period shall be accorded between the publication of new or amended fees and charges and their entry into force, except in urgent circumstances. Such fees and charges shall not be applied until information on them including the reason for such fees and charges, the responsible authority, and when and how payment is to be made, has been published.

Article 2.12 Export Duties, Taxes or Other Charges

Neither Party shall adopt or maintain any duty, tax, or other charge on the export of any good to the territory of the other Party, unless the duty, tax, or other charge is also applied to a like good destined for domestic consumption. For the purposes of this Article, charges shall not include fees or other charges imposed in accordance with Article 2.11 (Administrative Fees and Formalities).

Article 2.13 Export Subsidies

The Parties affirm their WTO commitments not to adopt or maintain an export subsidy on any good.

Article 2.14 Export Licensing

A Party shall be deemed to have complied with this paragraph if it has notified its export licensing procedures consistent with a Decision on Notification Procedures for Quantitative Restrictions adopted by the WTO Council for Trade in Goods.
2. Each Party shall publish any new export licensing procedure, or any modification to an existing export licensing procedure. Such publication shall take place no later than 30 days after the procedure or modification takes effect.
3. For greater certainty, nothing in this Article requires a Party to grant an export licence, or prevents a Party from implementing its obligations under any international agreement, including but not limited to those under United Nations Security Council Resolutions, as well as its commitments under multilateral non-proliferation regimes and export control arrangements including, but not limited to the Wassenaar Arrangement on Export Controls for Conventional Arms and Dual-Use Goods and Technologies done at The Hague on 19 December 1995, the Nuclear Suppliers Group, the Australia Group, and the Missile Technology Control Regime.

Article 2.15 Remanufactured Goods

1. Unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement, neither Party shall accord to a remanufactured good of the other Party treatment that is less favourable than that it accords to equivalent goods in new condition.
2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply to consumer guarantees provided for in a Party's laws and regulations.

3. If a Party adopts or maintains import and export prohibitions or restrictions on used goods on the basis that they are used goods, it shall not apply those measures to remanufactured goods. For greater certainty, Article 2.9 (Import and Export Restrictions) shall apply to prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of remanufactured goods.
4. Subject to its obligations under this Agreement and the WTO Agreement, a Party may require that remanufactured goods be identified as such for distribution or sale in its territory and that they meet all applicable technical requirements that apply to equivalent goods in new condition.

Article 2.16 Committee on Trade in Goods

1. The Parties hereby establish a Committee on Trade in Goods (“the Goods Committee”), composed of government representatives of each Party.
2. The Goods Committee's functions shall include:

  - (f) facilitating trade in remanufactured goods, including considering amendments or modifications to the provisions of this Agreement relating to the treatment of remanufactured goods, with a view to broadening the types of goods that may be considered remanufactured goods, having regard to factors including technological developments and the Parties' shared environmental objectives;

- (g) reviewing the future amendments to the Harmonized System and endeavouring to resolve any differences that may arise between the Parties on matters related to the classification of goods under the Harmonized System and Annex 2A (Tariff Commitments);
  - (h) determining the procedures and specific data requirements, as appropriate, for any exchange of trade data; and
  - (i) undertaking any other work that the Joint Committee assigns to it.
3. The Goods Committee shall meet at the request of either Party and in any event within one year of the date of entry into force of this Agreement. Meetings may occur in person, or by any other means as mutually determined by the Parties.
4. The Goods Committee may establish technical working groups to consider any matter relating to this Chapter that creates disruption or may affect trade in goods between the Parties. Any technical working group established shall report to the Goods Committee on progress of its work.

To the extent that provisions of this Section are identical to the corresponding provisions of the Tariff Act, the provisions of this Section shall have the same meaning as the corresponding provisions of the Tariff Act.
2. Unless otherwise provided for in this Section, for the purposes of the elimination or reduction of customs duties in accordance with this Section, in the case of ad valorem duties any fraction less than 0.1 of a percentage point shall be rounded to the nearest one decimal place (in the case of 0.05 per cent, the fraction is rounded to 0.1 per cent), and in the case of specific duties any fraction smaller than 0.01 of one Australian dollar shall be rounded to the nearest two decimal places (in the case of 0.005, the fraction is rounded to 0.01).
3. The base rate of customs duty and staging category for an item are indicated in Part 2A-2 (Schedule of Tariff Commitments of Australia).
4. Unless otherwise provided in this Section, for the purposes of this Section, the term “year” means, with respect to the first year, the period from the date of entry into force of this Agreement until 31 December of the same year and, with respect to each subsequent year, the twelve-month period which starts on 1 January of that year.
5. For the purposes of implementing equal annual instalments, the annual instalments shall take place on the first day of each year (for the avoidance of doubt, for the first year the annual instalment will take place on the date of entry into force of this Agreement).
6. The following staging categories shall apply to the elimination of customs duties by Australia pursuant to Article 2.5 of Chapter 2 (Treatment of Customs Duties – Trade in Goods):
