JUDGMENT

The judgment of the Tribunal is that:

1. the claims in respect of remedy are dismissed under Rule 47 of the Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure (as amended) due to the non-attendance of the Claimant. The Tribunal attempted to contact her three times and was unable to proceed in her absence due to the insufficient nature of the evidence she sent to the Tribunal (which it did not know if it had been served on the Respondent) and the inability to ask the Claimant questions.
2. The Respondent has entered into creditors’ voluntary liquidation and its name is changed accordingly. This judgment will be served on the Joint Liquidators.
