

School leaders and other sector experts who worked with DfE to produce the flexible working toolkit.

Flexible Working Ambassador Schools 2020-2021 cohort

- Charles Dickens Primary School, The Charter Schools Educational Trust, London South Teaching School Hub and their participant schools Perryfields Primary Pupil Referral Unit and Olive Academies
- Impington Village College
- Michael Scott, Newport Girls' High School
- Antonia Spinks, Edward Neighbour, Mark Pritchard, Debra Roscoe, Simone Tilbury and Jessica Theisinger, Upton Court Grammar School, Pioneer Educational Trust and their participant school Furze Platt Infant and Junior Schools

Sector Experts

- Muriel Tersago, Principal Consultant, Timewise
- Lindsay Patience and Lucy Rose, Co-founders, Flexible Teacher Talent
- Sara Tanton, Deputy Director Policy, Association of School and College Leaders
- Cassie Buchanan, OBE, CEO The Charter Schools Educational Trust
- Vivienne Porritt, OBE, FCCT, FRSA, Leadership Consultant, Global Strategic Leader of WomenEd, Vice President of Chartered College of Teaching
- Emma Turner, Trust CPD and Research Lead, Discovery Trust, Leicestershire
- Andy Walls, Policy Adviser, NAHT
- National Governance Association
- Now Teach
- Jenny Griffiths, Research and Knowledge Manager, Teach First
- Dr Suzanne Brown, Senior Lecturer, Sheffield Institute of Education, Sheffield Hallam University
- Jim Borchers, Curriculum Modelling Consultant, HFL Education

Volunteers from DfE's Headteacher and Teacher Reference Groups

- Sarah Jeffreys, Recruitment Lead, Aylesbury High School
- Jonathan Johnson, OBE, Chief Executive Officer, Changing Lives Learning Trust
- Andy Hodgkinson, Chief Executive Officer, Zenith Multi Academy Trust

- Matthew Shanks, Trust Lead and Executive Principal, Education South West Trust
- Caroline Barlow, Headteacher of Heathfield Community College

© Crown copyright 2023