JUDGMENT

The claimant having written to the Tribunal stating she was conditionally withdrawing her claim and the Tribunal having written to her on 8 September 2023 asking for confirmation of the position and warning her that her non-attendance might result in the claim being dismissed in her absence, without reply; and both sides having written to the Tribunal stating they would not be attending; and neither side having attended:

The claim is dismissed pursuant to rule 47; alternatively is struck out pursuant to rules 37(1)(d) & (e).
