

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms J N Zarifis

Respondent: Lets Deel Ltd

JUDGMENT

The claimant's application dated 19 July 2023 (together with the letter dated 24 July 2023) for reconsideration of the judgment sent to the parties on 5 July 2023 is refused.

REASONS

There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked.

The role of the Tribunal in an interim relief application is to make a broad assessment of the evidence before it expeditiously and on a summary basis.

The Tribunal is satisfied that its decision as to how the matter looked and as to whether the Claimant had a pretty good chance and was likely to make out her case, was reached with due consideration and understanding of the material before it.

The Tribunal considers that the law has been correctly applied, and the interim relief application was properly considered on the evidence before it. It is not now in the interests of justice to enter into discussion about credibility, facts or documents, or interpretation of those documents, when those points were not made at the hearing. It is also not in the interests of justice to now seek to refer to new evidence or to evidence which was included in the bundle but not referred to the Tribunal during the hearing.
