JUDGMENT

1. The claimant did not suffer an unlawful deduction from her wages. The respondent was entitled to deduct the full amount of holiday pay owed to the claimant, as authorised by her contract of employment.
2. The Tribunal makes no finding as to any other payments owed to the respondent by the claimant, or as to whether the claimant's new employer has verbally agreed to cover the costs of those payments, as it was not necessary to do so for the purposes of this claim.
