Equality objectives

October 2023

Introduction

- 1.1 The Equality Act 2010 requires all public bodies to publish equality objectives it thinks it should achieve to meet the general equality duty, sometimes called the Public Service Equality Duty (PSED).
- 1.2 The general equality duty says that public bodies must, in the exercise of their functions, have due regard to the need to:
 - I. eliminate discrimination, harassment, and victimisation
 - II. advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it
 - III. foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.
- 1.3 Our equality objectives build on those we published in July 2020. They were finalised following a statutory consultation between April to June 2023.
- 1.4 In preparing the equality objectives we have considered:
 - i. our fundamental objectives
 - ii. provisions in the Equality Act 2010
 - iii. the sector we regulate
 - iv. our regulatory approach
 - v. the progress against our previous objectives.
- 1.5 These objectives are not the full picture of RSH's equality, diversity and inclusion work. We have already taken steps to embed good practice, and the objectives identified are certain priority areas which build upon existing work and enable us to continue to improve.
- 1.6 We will review these objectives within the mandatory four-year period, and we will also keep these under review if we identify further areas which would benefit from setting equality objectives.
- 1.7 We will continue to provide annual updates on our progress against our objectives through our Equality information reports.
