

Upper Tribunal Immigration and Asylum Chamber

Fee following grant of permission on papers

Fee: £770

For office use only

Use this form to continue your case when a judge has granted you permission to apply for judicial review on the papers. You must pay the full fee (£770) within 9 days of the tribunal sending the decision granting you permission to apply for judicial review. If you do not, the case will be automatically struck out under rule 8(1)(b) of the Tribunal Procedure (Upper Tribunal) Rules 2008 (as amended).

If you have already paid £385 to apply to reconsider permission at a hearing use form UTIAC13.

You must complete Section 1 and provide a copy of the decision granting permission which will show the date the tribunal sent you the decision notice.

All other forms are available at www.gov.uk/government/collections/immigration-and-asylum-chamber-upper-tribunal-forms

Check the details you have provided carefully and pay as soon as possible so that any issues regarding payment can be resolved before the expiry of any deadlines in your case.

If you cannot afford the tribunal fee

You may not have to pay a fee, or you may get some money off it if you only have a small amount of savings and investments, receive certain benefits or are on a low income. You can apply for help with court and tribunal fees online at www.gov.uk/help-with-court-fees or through the 'EX160 Apply for help with fees' form and 'EX160A – How to apply for help with fees' guidance.

Prepayment – This can be via a bank transfer, please contact the Upper Tribunal's regional office for details.

Card payments - this can be taken over the phone if your case is in Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds or Cardiff.

By post or DX – cheque, banker's draft or postal order.

In person – cash, credit/debit card or one of the ways listed above.

Fee account – a way for solicitors, local authorities and other regular users to make payments relating to civil and family cases.
