JUDGMENT

Upon hearing from the claimant and respondent:

1. In respect of the respondent's application for a strike out of the claimant's race discrimination complaints, the Tribunal is satisfied that the claimant's complaints do not have no reasonable prospect of success, and that they have more than little reasonable prospect of success. Accordingly, the respondent's application for those complaints to be struck out, or a for a deposit order to be made in respect of those complaints, is refused.
2. The respondent's representative requested written reasons during the hearing. These will be provided separately, at a later date.
