

Byelaw for countryside recreation application form

Use this form to apply to make or amend byelaws that need the confirmation or provisional approval of the Secretary of State for the Department for Food, Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (Defra).

Read the guidance Making, amending, and revoking countryside recreation byelaws before filling in this form.

You must also send with the form:

- a copy of any current relevant byelaws that are in operation (if applicable)
- a map or plan of the area the byelaw will cover
- a copy of the feedback from any consultations
- 2 copies of the sealed byelaws and 2 copies of the unsealed byelaws (if seeking final confirmation)

Submit the form and documents to: accessheoteam@defra.gov.uk.

Other

Specify any other legislation you are applying to make a byelaw under.

Are there any considerations to take into account in the legislation you are making the byelaw under?

- Yes No

If you answered yes, please state what they are and how you've taken them into account.

Byelaw details

Have you carried out a preliminary consultation?

This is strongly advised. See step 2 of the guidance Making, amending, and revoking countryside recreation byelaws.

- Yes No

Have you consulted Natural England?

- Yes No

State the purpose of each byelaw you are applying for.

For example:

- regulating camping for nature preservation
- prohibiting unauthorised aircraft landings for airspace safety
- controlling power-driven model aircraft to prevent hazards

Outline the local concern and why the byelaw is a proportionate measure to address this.

Byelaws must address genuine local concerns without being used as unnecessary deterrents.

Does any existing enactment, law or legislation already fulfil the purpose of and need for the proposed byelaw?

Yes No

If there are any existing related laws, byelaws or legislation, you must:

- say why the authority still considers there is a need for the proposed byelaw
- provide assurance that the proposed byelaw does not conflict with any existing enactments

Have any alternatives to making a byelaw either been tried or are not considered appropriate?

You must include details of what has been tried and why it has failed.

Have you used the Defra model byelaw template?

Yes No

If you answered yes, attach a copy of the model byelaw with this application.

Enforcing the byelaw

The byelaws will start being enforced one month after they are confirmed unless there are exceptional circumstances that make it necessary to start on a different date.

If you have a preferred alternative date, please let us know and say why.

If you're not sure about a date, you can email Defra for advice at:

accessheoteam@defra.gov.uk

Revoking a byelaw

Are you revoking any byelaws?

Yes No

If you answered yes, please give details.
