Matt,

Good morning, I did leave you a voicemail yesterday to which I had no reply, so presuming you are busy thought I would follow up with a very quick email.

Please could you provide me with an update further to your meeting with your senior colleague on Wednesday afternoon 5th October at which you confirmed that you would be discussing our application for recovery.

Thank you for your help so far it is greatly appreciated, however, I cannot allow this to continue infinitely given the length of time that this has continued and need to draw a conclusion urgently one way or the other.

To recap. Further to all previous correspondence and dialogue with yourself, I see no other issues now with our application other than you potentially needing sight of the evidence of the obligation that the EA unequivocally agreed at the last hearing, if you need us to add this to the WRP this can be done very quickly if you confirm that this is what you require in order to obtain recovery and be granted a recovery permit.

I would be extremely grateful if you could reply today.

Kind regards,

Simon Nelson
