To the defendant

A copy of the written evidence filed by the claimant is served with this judgment summons.

If you fail to attend the judge may;-

- make an order in your absence or
- order you to attend at a later hearing.

The amount the claimant says is overdue under the judgment or order including any costs or interest is  $\pounds$ Court fee paid to issue this summons  $\pounds$ Amount (if any) paid to you for your travelling expenses to court  $\pounds$ Total amount \pounds

[This judgment summons has been issued in respect of overdue instalments only. The claimant says that when the total amount above is paid the amount remaining to N67 Judgment summons under the Debtors Act 1869 (04.06) be paid under the judgment will be £ plus any further interest.]

If you pay the total amount opposite (and any further interest) to the claimant before the hearing, an order committing you to prison will not be made. You may be ordered to pay further costs, particularly if you make payment too late to prevent the claimant attending the hearing.

If the judgment or order was for £5,000 or more, interest may be payable on it. The total amount opposite includes any interest to which the claimant claims to be entitled up to the date this summons was issued.

How to Pay and Address for Payment

- PAYMENT(S) MUST BE MADE to the person named at the address for payment, quoting their reference and the court claim number.
- DO NOT bring or send payments to the court. THEY WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
- You should allow at least 4 days for your payment to reach the claimant or his representative.
- Make sure that you keep records and can account for all payments made. Proof may be required if there is any disagreement. It is not safe to send cash unless you use registered post.
- A leaflet giving further advice about payment can be obtained from the court.
- If you need more information you should contact the claimant.
