

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr A Williams

Respondent: Ontrak Recruitment and Training

JUDGMENT

The claimant's correspondence dated 4 July 2023 has been treated as an application for reconsideration of the judgment sent to the parties on 4 July 2023. That application is refused.

REASONS

There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked, because:

1. The claimant failed to attend a hearing on 27 February 2023 and was sent a strike out warning by Employment Judge Webster asking him, on or before 1 March 2023:
 - a. To send to the Tribunal and the respondent evidence of his medical appointment; and
 - b. An explanation as to why he did not attend the hearing, including an explanation of why he told the clerk on the phone he would attend but then failed to do so.
2. Nothing was received by the Tribunal on or before 1 March 2023.
3. On 2 March the claimant sent in an email explaining that he could not attend because he had a hospital appointment and then, when he tried to call in it would only let him use the video, which he didn't think was suitable as he was on public transport.
4. The claimant did not comply with the orders set by Employment Judge Webster in that he failed to provide any medical evidence of the appointment and failed to respond in time.
