

One Post Available for the Oncology and Haematology Expert Advisory Group

The Commission on Human Medicines (CHM) is looking to appoint one expert to the Oncology and Haematology Expert Advisory Group (OHEAG).

The Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) enhances and improves the health of millions of people every day through the effective regulation of medicines and medical devices, underpinned by science and research. The OH EAG is an independent advisory committee of the CHM that provides impartial advice to the Licensing Authority (Health Ministers) on the safety, quality and efficacy of medicines used in the treatment of malignant disease or blood disorders.

As a member of the Committee, you will possess or develop a working knowledge and understanding of the UK medicines regulatory procedures and possess or develop a working knowledge of oncology clinical trials.

Expertise Required

Cancer specialist - Gastrointestinal cancer or neuro-oncology

Essential Criteria

The members must be able to demonstrate the qualities, skills and experience to meet all the essential criteria for appointment.

- be recognised by their peers as a leader in their field e.g. national academies and Royal Colleges
- be a skilled communicator
- be able to assimilate complex scientific information at short notice
- be available to attend/join the OHEAG meetings and provide advice between meetings, if required
- be able and prepared to contribute actively to the work of the OHEAG

Remuneration will be £200 per meeting, for a time commitment of up to 10 meetings per year. The MHRA determines the length of appointment, which may be for up to a maximum of four years, extendable to a second term.
