Dear [REDACTED]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information about Export Health certificates, which the Animal and Plant Health Agency (APHA) received on 10 May 2023. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

The information you requested, and the response is detailed below:

“Many thanks for providing the attached data for March 2022 and March 2023.

Would you kindly provide the same data (the numbers of Export Health Certificates issued for exports to EU countries by commodity group) for April 2022 and April 2023?”

The data you have requested can be found below.

(Data attached excludes EHC’s issued GB to Northern Ireland).

Note, certificates issued does not equate to consignments sent. A certifier might choose not to certify an EHC issued to them by APHA.

The information that we have provided is a true reflection of the information that we have access to. We can’t guarantee the accuracy of this data, as we can only rely on the information that has been input into EHC’s by a third party.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 11 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Manager at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The ICO can be contacted at:
