

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr G Westwell

Respondent: South East Coast Ambulance Service NHS

JUDGMENT

The claimant's application dated 27 November 2023 for reconsideration of the judgment sent to the parties on 13 November 2023 is refused.

REASONS

There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked, because it was accepted that the claimant was a disabled person and his claim was one of direct discrimination and so the issue for the Tribunal was whether he had been treated less favourably because of his disability and not whether he had been treated unfavourably because of something arising from his disability.
