Hi Munir

I hope you're well.

Confidentially, we are looking to announce the approval of [REDACTED] on Tuesday morning (before 7am) subject to ministerial approval.

We've drafted a press release that includes a statement from you - could you please have a look over it and check you are happy? Feel free to make any edits as you see fit (to your statement or the rest of the communications). June hasn't cleared it yet so there may be further edits, but I'll make sure you have sight of any final version.

Grateful if you could get back to me by 3pm Monday.

Have a nice weekend.
