Dear Lord Houchen,

On 16 May 2023 you approached Government regarding an independent review of the South Tees Development Corporation (STDC) and Teesworks. You raised concerns regarding the allegations made in parliament by Andy McDonald MP of ‘dubious dealings’ and ‘industrial-scale corruption’. You were particularly concerned about the damaging effects that these allegations could have on investment and job creation across Teesside. I wrote to you on 24 May 2023, noting that the exceptional circumstances meant I would establish such a review. I appointed an independent Panel to report to me, with the Terms of Reference published on gov.uk.

Today, I have published the independent panel’s report into the Tees Valley Combined Authority’s (TVCA) oversight of the STDC and Teesworks Joint Venture. My colleague, Lee Rowley, is also making a statement to Parliament setting out our assessment of the report and its recommendations. I am grateful to the Panel for their work and to you, your members and officers, and other partners, for your cooperation with the review, providing the Panel with information requested, and meeting with them to aid their investigation.

Their report makes clear that the panel found no evidence of corruption or illegality. I know you will strongly welcome this conclusion. They also note that the pace and scope of the regeneration has had wide-reaching positive impact on the local economy, which we all welcome. The panel report identifies a ‘need to strengthen governance and increase transparency which can be done with limited impact on pace of delivery’ and makes recommendations as to how to address these by strengthening scrutiny and improving public accountability to the residents of Teesside. There are some specific areas for improvement and lessons to be learned, which I know you will also welcome. I am grateful for your assurance that you stand ready to accept in principle the recommendations, while recognising that the panel also made recommendations to Government which will be carefully considered and to which I will respond in due course.

I ask that you now engage with the panel’s recommendations, working with the Combined Authority and partners as appropriate, and provide me with an initial report by 8 March on how you intend to respond to the Panel’s recommendations. I will not take decisions on further action until you have responded. My officials stand ready to support yours, with your response to these recommendations.

A copy of this letter will be placed in the House libraries.

With every good wish,
