

About this form

Marriage Allowance lets you transfer 10% of your Personal Allowance to your husband, wife, or civil partner.

It's quick and easy to apply online, go to www.gov.uk and search for 'Marriage Allowance'. However, if you cannot apply online, please fill in this form. For notes on how to complete this form, please read the What to do now section on page 3.

How to check if you can apply

You can benefit from Marriage Allowance if all these apply:

- you're married or in a civil partnership
- you do not pay Income Tax, for example, your income is below your Personal Allowance - for more information on Personal Allowance, go to www.gov.uk and search for 'Personal Allowance'
- your partner pays Income Tax at the basic rate, or the starter, basic or intermediate rate if they're a Scottish taxpayer

You cannot claim Marriage Allowance if you're living together and you're not married or in a civil partnership.

To check whether you're eligible and how much you could save, go to www.gov.uk and search 'Marriage Allowance'.

If you or your partner were born before 6 April 1935, you might benefit more as a couple by applying for Married Couple's Allowance instead. You cannot get Marriage Allowance and Married Couple's Allowance at the same time. For more information, go to www.gov.uk and search for 'Married Couple's Allowance'.

How Marriage Allowance works

We'll backdate your Marriage Allowance to the start of the tax year (6 April).

10% of your Personal Allowance will then transfer automatically to your partner every year until you cancel Marriage Allowance.

You must cancel Marriage Allowance if your circumstances change and you're no longer eligible - for example, if your income changes or your relationship ends. Go to www.gov.uk and search for 'Marriage Allowance circumstances change'.

Backdating your claim

You can backdate your claim for up to 4 tax years that you were eligible for Marriage Allowance. Your partner's tax bill will be reduced for the years you're backdating.

How we use your information

HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) is a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act 2018. We hold information for the purposes specified in our notification to the Information Commissioner, including the assessment and collection of tax and duties, the payment of benefits and the prevention and detection of crime, and may use this information for any of them.

We may get information about you from others, or we may give information to them. If we do, it will only be as the law permits to:

- check the accuracy of information
- prevent or detect crime
- protect public funds

We may check information we receive about you with what is already in our records. This can include information provided by you, as well as by others, such as other government departments or agencies and overseas tax and customs authorities. We'll not give information to anyone outside HMRC unless the law permits us to do so. For more information, go to www.gov.uk and look for Data Protection Act within the Search facility.
