Dear

Release of Information

Thank you for your correspondence of 17 January 2020 in which you requested the following information:

'In FOI2019/13312, you replied that the post of Assistant Chief of Staff (People Capability) is vacant and held by Assistant Chief of Staff (Naval Assistant) temporarily.

I would like to ask if the post has been filled or still held interim.'

Your enquiry has been considered to be a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

In response to your request, I can tell you that the duties of the post Assistant Chief of Staff (People Capability) continue to be undertaken by the Assistant Chief of Staff (Naval Assistant).

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely
