Dear [REDACTED],

Release of Information

Further to our correspondence of 10 December 2020, I am now able to provide you with a substantive response to your request for the following information:

'The total number of accidents or security incidents and breaches that have been recorded at the MoD's Faslane site in the last five years.'

Your enquiry has been considered to be a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has been completed within the Ministry of Defence and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

In response to your request, the total number of Health and Safety Accidents/Incidents and Security Incidents/Breaches for the last five years at HM Naval Base Clyde, Faslane, can be found detailed in the table below. Please be advised that figures covering Health and Safety include Accidents/Incidents, Environmental Incidents and Near Misses. With regard to Security Incidents and Breaches, the figure provided includes minor breaches, mis-accounted documentation, lost ID cards, breaches of Personal Electronic Device zones, General Data Protection Regulation breaches etc.
