Dear ██████████

RE: Request for Information – RFI4565

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

I am trying to get hold of a list of Local Authorities within England that have utilised modular construction in the past for housebuilding...

Ideally this would be a list of LAs that have directly delivered affordable housing, utilising modular construction, but any data similar to this would be most helpful (even if it is land you have sold to private housebuilders that have utilised modular construction would be helpful at a minimum).

Response

We can confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request.

To conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our Operational team who would have the requested information if held.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.

The full text of section 1 in the legislation can be found here:

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA. To comply with this duty we are able to confirm Homes England does not hold this information as Local Authorities don't directly deliver against any such programme. Any delivery of modular construction is done through a housing developer/builder.

We can confirm that we do not hold any information regarding sales of land to private housebuilders for the express purposes of modular construction.
