Our Objective

The Office of the Regulator of Community Interest Companies aspires to provide its customers with a high quality, accessible and responsive service to businesses and the community. However, if you believe that things have gone wrong, please send us your complaint and comments. Our aim is to resolve any problems, or difficulties, quickly and fairly.

One of the ways in which we continue to improve our services is by listening and responding to your views and canvassing your opinion through surveys. We also welcome any comments or suggestions you have about our complaints, or any other procedure, to make sure it works as efficiently and effectively as possible.

What is a complaint and who can make one?

The Regulator will regard information from any person, or organisation that wishes to complain about the way the office has dealt with them as a valid complaint. The Regulator's aim is to improve service delivery and to put right any shortcomings that are within her control.

Time limits for making complaints

Any request for a complaint to be investigated by the Regulator should be made as soon as possible, in any case, no later than six months from the date you became aware of, or ought reasonably to have become aware of, the subject of the complaint. This should give you adequate time to consider the issue, and for all relevant facts to remain fresh. Any departure from this time limit will be allowed only in exceptional circumstances, as people and papers involved may no longer be available.

How to make your complaint

Please contact the Regulator who will deal with your enquiry promptly, and do their best to put things right.

Please provide the following information:

- A clear description of the complaint and what you would like us to do to sort things out.
- Information on whether it is an original complaint or a follow-up to a reply you were not satisfied with.

- Your full postal address, phone number and fax number (and e-mail address if you have one).

You can make your complaint (which we will deal with confidentially) in writing, by phone, fax or e-mail as follows:

The Regulator of Community Interest Companies
2nd floor
Companies House
Crown Way
Cardiff
CF14 3UZ

Tel: 029 21507 420. This is a 24 hour voicemail service.
E-mails should be sent to: cicregulator@companieshouse.gov.uk .

What happens next?

The Regulator will investigate and provide a full explanation within 15 working days of receiving your complaint. If this is not possible we will explain why and give you a date by which you can expect a full reply.

The Ombudsman

If you have gone through our complaints procedure and you are still not satisfied with the standard of service provided, you have the right to refer the matter to the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration (the Ombudsman). You have to make complaints to the Ombudsman through an MP. Your local Citizens' Advice Bureau can give you the address of your MP. You can get more advice from the Ombudsman's office at the following address:

The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman
