Postal search of the Probate records of England and Wales

PA1S

Complete this form if you want to find a will or 'grant of representation' for someone who died in or after 1858.

A 'grant of representation' gives someone the legal right to deal with a deceased person's estate.

Online search

Use our online service and you can order documents and get them within 10 working days.

www.gov.uk/search-will-probate

If you use our postal service we aim to respond within four weeks with your requested copies or a letter to explain that no grant has been issued. Please wait until after the four weeks has passed before contacting us.

What if the person died in the last six months? If the person died within the last six months, a grant may not have been issued yet. You should check the online search service regulary to see when a grant has been issued. You can then order the documents.

If you are unable to search online, you may apply for a standing search to enable a single copy to be sent to you when the grant issues. The copy will not be sealed.

After a period of six months without result, your standing search will expire. You are able to extend the search for a further six months within one month of the expiry date by sending a further £3.

We will send you a letter telling you the date the standing search was entered.
