

FOI 23-451 – adverse events data

REQUEST 25 JUNE 2023

I am trying to find any information due to Adverse Drug Reactions, and their numbers: spontaneous registration number per year, registrations by specialists number per year, and the most common drugs list. Maybe You have direct “link” that You publish the information. If You could share any information due to Adverse Drug Reactions in Your country, maybe it is online and it is available.

MHRA RESPONSE 27 June 2023

Thank you for your email. For suspected side effects being reported for medicines, the MHRA publishes this information in the form of interactive Drug Analysis Profiles (iDAPs) which can be accessed using the link below:
