Dear

Thank you for your enquiry to the MHRA.

“I would like to request the following information: I would like to obtain the list of all medicinal products (only originators, i.e. without including generics – originators are to be considered as medicinal products protected by forms of intellectual property rights) for human use approved in the United Kingdom from January 1987 to December 2004.”

I have attached a list of new medicines (new active substances/originators) approved in the UK from January 1987 to December 2004. I have included the ATC code and licensed indications where available.
