Dear

Thank you for your email of 16 November where you have asked:

It has come to my attention, through publicly available information, that there may be an existing agreement between GW Pharmaceuticals (now Jazz Pharmaceuticals) and the British Government.

The nature of this agreement, including the possibility of a public-private partnership (PPP), appears not to be in the public domain.

I am writing to request transparent details on any agreements, including potential Public-Private Partnerships, between GW Pharmaceuticals (Jazz Pharmaceuticals) and the UK Government regarding the cultivation and research of cannabis. This request encompasses information on goals, terms, conditions, and expected public benefits.

I would also request to know who the political/public and private finance managers are of any agreement or PPP that is in place.

The timeframe for this information is 01/11/1997 to 31/12/2007

We confirm that this is information not held.
