Once this transcript request is ready to proceed, send this form together with the relevant audio recording held by the Court to the Transcription supplier named by the requestor or allocated by the Court. If it is a Crown Court case and the recording is held on DARTS then only send the form to the Transcription supplier.

Transcripts at public expense for Civil, Family and Tribunal cases must be sent to the supplier offering best value for money for the service level requested however a Crown Court case where the recording is held on DARTS must be sent to the relevant supplier for that region.

If this was a case where supplier personnel attended the hearing under the ATS contract the form and the audio should be sent to the ATS supplier whose personnel attended the hearing.
