Claimant: Dr C Allen-Megahey

Respondent: Advanced Oncotherapy plc

HELD AT: Manchester

ON: 29 February 2024

BEFORE: Judge Johnson

REPRESENTATION:

Claimant: In person

Respondent: Did not attend

JUDGMENT

The judgment of the Tribunal is that:

- (1) The Tribunal has jurisdiction to hear the claim because the respondent's business is conducted within England and Wales.
- (2) The respondent admitted in section 6.1 of its form ET3 presented on 30 November 2023 that the claimant is entitled to:
  - (a) Unpaid salary in the gross sum of £90,416.69, (for May to August 2023).
  - (b) Unpaid salary in the gross sum of £2,980.77, (for the retention payment due in June 2023 and representing 1 week's earnings).
- (3) The respondent must therefore pay the claimant the total sum of £93,397.46 in settlement of their original complaints of unlawful deduction from wages.
- (4) The claimant has not particularised her complaint seeking holiday pay and remains employed by the respondent. No determination can therefore be made regarding this complaint as the respondent disputes that the claimant can claim this loss and it remains outstanding.

- (5) The complaint of purchased holiday and salary sacrifice payments cannot be determined in this judgment as the respondent disputes that the claimant can claim this loss and remain outstanding.
- (6) The claimant accepts that the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction to determine the complaint in respect of:
- (a) Unpaid pension contributions which should have been made by the respondent on the claimant's behalf.
  - (b) Fees and interest accrued.

Accordingly, these 2 complaints are dismissed upon withdrawal by the claimant.

- (7) The claimant has also made an application to amend her claim on 4 January 2024 which seeks to update his losses arising since she presented the original claim form. In the absence of any objection from the respondent and their nonattendance at this hearing, the application is allowed and this complaint will be subject to case management orders as appropriate, within the Note of Preliminary Hearing for those claimants in the Jimenez multiple, dated 22 February 2024.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990 ARTICLE 12

Case number: 2408990/2023

Name of case: Ms C Allen-
Megahey v Advanced Oncotherapy
PLC

Interest is payable when an Employment Tribunal makes an award or determination requiring one party to proceedings to pay a sum of money to another party, apart from sums representing costs or expenses.

No interest is payable if the sum is paid in full within 14 days after the date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties. The date the Tribunal sent the written record of the decision to the parties is called the relevant decision day.

Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day. That is called the calculation day.

The rate of interest payable is the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as the stipulated rate of interest.

The Secretary of the Tribunal is required to give you notice of the relevant decision day, the calculation day, and the stipulated rate of interest in your case. They are as follows:

the relevant decision day in this case is: 12 March 2024

the calculation day in this case is: 13 March 2024

the stipulated rate of interest is: 8% per annum.

GUIDANCE NOTE

1. There is more information about Tribunal judgments here, which you should read with this guidance note:

If you do not have access to the internet, you can ask for a paper copy by telephoning the Tribunal office dealing with the claim.

2. The payment of interest on Employment Tribunal awards is governed by The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990. Interest is payable on Employment Tribunal awards if they remain wholly or partly unpaid more than 14 days after the relevant decision day. Sums in the award that represent costs or expenses are excluded. Interest starts to accrue from the day immediately after the relevant decision day, which is called the calculation day.
3. The date of the relevant decision day in your case is set out in the Notice. If the judgment is paid in full by that date, no interest will be payable. If the judgment is not paid in full by that date, interest will start to accrue from the next day.
4. Requesting written reasons after you have received a written judgment does not change the date of the relevant decision day.
5. Interest will be calculated as simple interest accruing from day to day on any part of the sum of money awarded by the Tribunal that remains unpaid.
6. If the person paying the Tribunal award is required to pay part of it to a public authority by way of tax or National Insurance, no interest is payable on that part.
7. If the Secretary of State has claimed any part of the sum awarded by the Tribunal in a recoupment notice, no interest is payable on that part.
8. If the sum awarded is varied, either because the Tribunal reconsiders its own judgment, or following an appeal to the Employment Appeal Tribunal or a higher court, interest will still be payable from the calculation day but it will be payable on the new sum not the sum originally awarded.
9. The online information explains how Employment Tribunal awards are enforced. The interest element of an award is enforced in the same way.
