To Whom It May Concern:

Notarial Acts

The British High Commission cannot provide notarial services for British nationals in Malaysia.

Consular officers in Commonwealth countries, whether designated as Consuls or otherwise, have no general powers under the Commissioners for Oaths Act 1889 to do Notarial Acts.

This means the British High Commission cannot issue Certificates of No Impediment, certify documents – including copies of documents, write letters, administer oaths, or take affidavits which are effectual in the United Kingdom or any other country.

Applicants with requests of this nature are advised to seek the services of registered Notaries Public or Commissioners for Oaths who, under local law, are competent to perform such services.

We are sorry that we cannot be of more assistance in this matter.

Yours faithfully
