

Contracts for Difference: Stakeholder Bulletin

07.03.2024

Proposed amendments to Contracts for Difference for Allocation Round 7 and future rounds consultation response deadline extension.

Yesterday, we published the Contracts for Difference Allocation Round 6 (AR6) statutory notices. We are aware that this was earlier in the month than for previous years, and internal sign off procedures for responses to the consultation may be affected by senior managers having to engage with these AR6 documents earlier than anticipated.

As a result, we are granting an extension to the deadline for responses to the Proposed amendments to Contracts for Difference for Allocation Round 7 and future rounds consultation to 11:59pm on Monday, 11th March. Please note, the content of consultation responses should remain specific to the material in the consultation document, rather than reflecting views on the AR6 statutory notices.

We encourage respondents to respond online.
