Communicating by email

If you choose to email us, please be aware that email is not secure. The main risk is that information sent by email could be changed or read by someone else before it reaches us. Only use email to contact us or send us information if you accept the risks.

Put an 'X' in the box if you agree to the email risks and you authorise us to use the email address you have provided to correspond with you

By emailing us you are also confirming that you are content for us to send you information concerning your business, including financial information, and that you are happy for us to send you attachments. This is in relation to all matters concerning Customs authorisations.

If we contact you by email, we will desensitise information wherever possible, for example by only quoting part of any unique reference numbers. We are happy to discuss how you may do the same but still provide the information we need.

If you would prefer, we did not respond by email, for example because other people may have access to your email account, we are happy to respond by an alternative method which we'll need to agree with you.

For more information, read HMRC's privacy policy. Go to www.gov.uk and search for 'HMRC privacy notice'.

If you think an email has not come from HMRC, do not click on any links, give any personal details or reply to the email. You should send the email to us at phishing@hmrc.gov.uk
