

Ministry of Justice

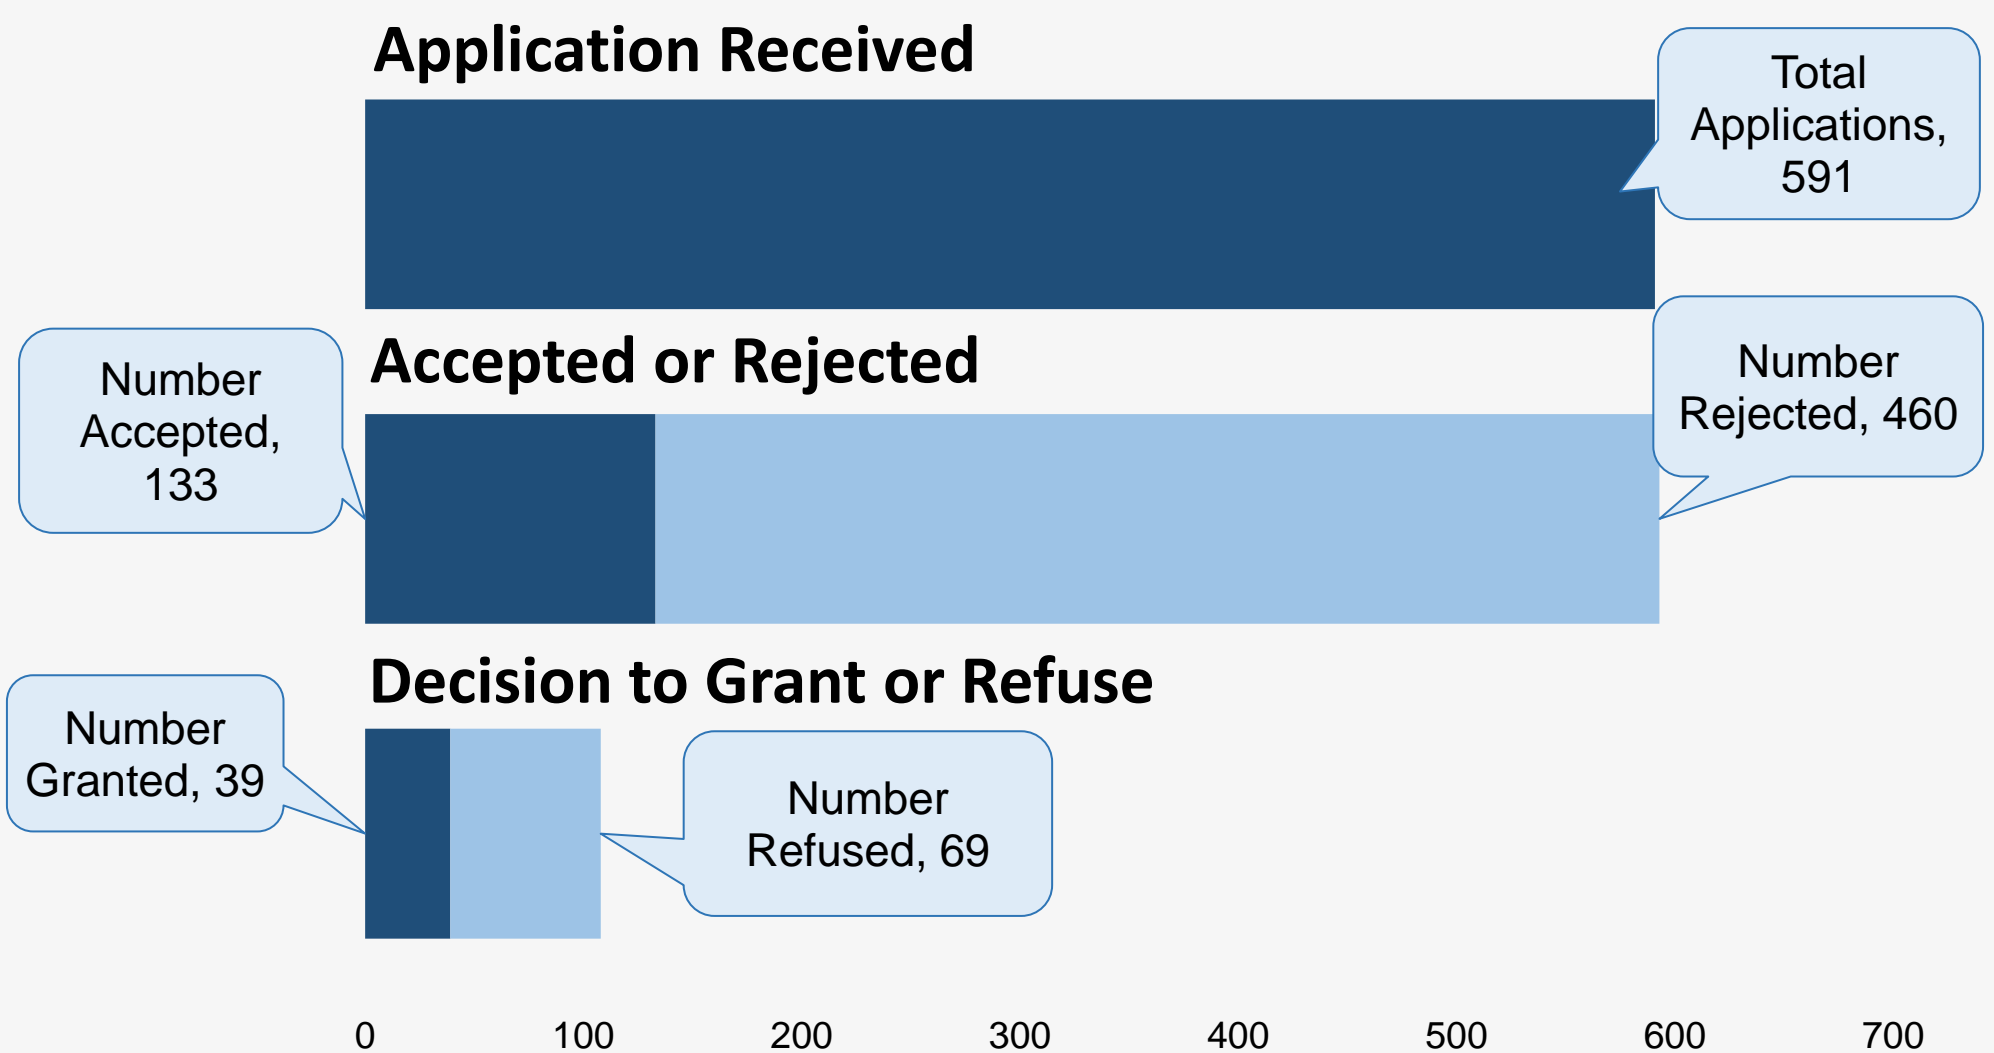

Miscarriages of Justice Application Service Claims Management Information: April 2016 to March 2024

England and Wales

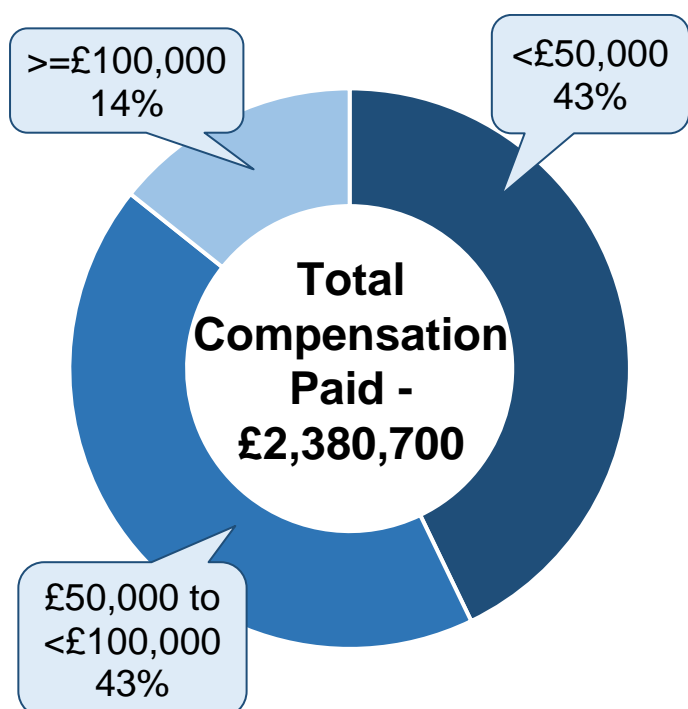

Overview – Case Progression

591 applications for compensation due to a miscarriage of justice were received between April 2016 and March 2024. Over the same period, 39 cases were granted compensation of which 35 payments have been made.

Compensation

The Ministry of Justice has awarded 35 claimants £2,380,700 in Miscarriage of Justice claims between April 2016 and March 2024.

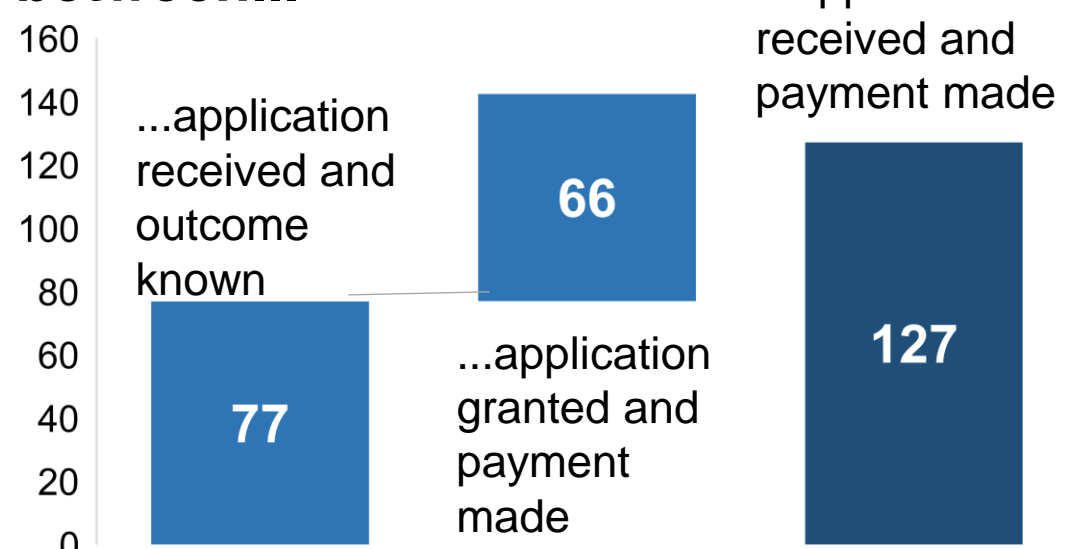

The amount paid ranges between £0 and £500,000.

Timeliness

The average time taken between application received and outcome known is between 31 and 181 weeks.

The average time taken between application granted and payment made is between 31 and 121 weeks.

Average (mean) number of weeks between...

The average time taken between application received and payment made is between 62 and 216 weeks.