When should I file my application for judicial review?

- Your application must be made promptly and must be sent or delivered to the Tribunal so that it is received no later than 3 months after the date of the decision, action or omission challenged.
- An application challenging a decision of the First-tier Tribunal Immigration and Asylum Chamber (FtTIAC) may be made later than the time given above if it is made within 1 month after the date on which the First-tier Tribunal sent written reasons for the decision; or notification that an application for the decision to be set aside has been unsuccessful.

Before you begin your application
