Dear [REDACTED]

RE: Request for Information – RFI4641

Thank you for your request for information which was processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You requested the following information:

From the inception of the Help to Build Scheme please could you confirm:

- a) The total number of equity loans advanced,
- b) The total number of equity loans that remain outstanding,
- c) The average equity loan percentage advanced outside London, and
- d) The average equity loan percentage advanced inside London.

Response

We can confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request.

To conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our Help to Build team who would have the requested information if held.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.

The full text of section 1 in the legislation can be found here:

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA. To comply with this duty we are able to confirm that to date no equity loans have been issued by Homes England under the Help to Build scheme. Help to Build equity loans are only drawn down when the build is complete. It can take up to two years from application to the drawing down of the Equity Loan.

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled, you may request an internal review. You can request an internal review by writing to Homes England via the details below, quoting the reference number at the top of this letter.

Email: infogov@homesengland.gov.uk
