

Home Office

Temporary Work caseworker guidance

Version 31.0

Contents

Contents.....	2
About this guidance.....	5
Contacts	5
Publication.....	6
Changes from last version of this guidance	6
Overview	7
Requirements.....	7
Representatives.....	7
Requesting more information	8
Taking a fair and proportionate approach to assessment of evidence	8
Format of evidence	9
Where evidence is missing or inadequate	9
Failure to supply requested information	10
Verification checks	10
Translating documents.....	10
Validity for entry clearance and permission to stay applications	11
Irish citizens	11
The application.....	11
Application fees and Immigration Health Charge	12
Biometrics and identity documents	12
Certificate of sponsorship.....	12
Government or international scholarship agency awards - Government Authorised Exchange route only	13
Switching into Temporary Work routes	13
Suitability for entry clearance and permission to stay applications	14
Overstaying.....	14
Immigration bail.....	14
Eligibility for entry clearance and permission to stay applications	15
Requirements for a grant of permission.....	15
Tuberculosis certificate	15
Sponsorship requirement.....	15
Checking the validity of the CoS.....	16
Certificate of sponsorship checking system	16
Check the current status of the CoS.....	16
Licensed sponsor	17

Temporary Work: searching the certificate of sponsorship checking system	17
Searching using applicant’s details	18
Searching using sponsor details	18
Genuineness requirement	18
Compliance with specified employment regulations	19
Financial requirement	21
Route-specific requirements	22
Creative Workers	22
Creative Worker visa concession	22
Certificates of Sponsorship	22
Expenses	23
Group certificates of sponsorship	23
Multiple engagements or performances: certificates of sponsorship	23
Charity Workers	23
Religious Workers	24
Government Authorised Exchange (GAE)	25
GAE sponsor	25
Supernumerary role	26
ATAS requirement	26
Seasonal Worker	27
International Agreement	29
ATAS requirement	29
Employees of overseas governments and international organisations	30
Private servants in diplomatic households	30
Compliance with UK employment laws: National minimum wage (“NMW”)	32
Period of stay	33
Temporary Work: dependants	34
Age and parental consent requirement	35
Grant or refuse	36
Dates of permission granted	36
Length of grant	36
Grant or refuse entry clearance	40
Grant entry clearance	40
Temporary Work: Creative Workers	40
eVisas	40
Biometric information	40
Refuse entry clearance	40

Rights of appeal and administrative review: entry clearance applications.....	41
Grant or refuse entry at a UK port.....	42
Granting permission to enter	42
Refusing permission to enter.....	42
Creative Worker: no entry clearance	42
Check the certificate of sponsorship (CoS).....	43
Financial requirements.....	43
Granting permission to enter	43
Length of grant	43
Refusing permission to enter.....	44
Dependants.....	44
Grant or refuse permission to stay	45
Grant permission to stay.....	45
Biometric information	45
Rights of appeal and administrative review	45
Conditions of grant.....	45
Supplementary employment	46

About this guidance

This guidance tells caseworkers how to consider applications to enter or remain in the UK on the Temporary Work routes of the Immigration Rules, previously called T5 (Temporary Worker).

'You' in this guidance means a caseworker.

The Temporary Work routes to which this guidance relates are:

- Creative Worker
- Charity Worker
- Religious Worker
- Government Authorised Exchange
- International Agreement
- Seasonal Worker

Separate guidance is available in relation to the Youth Mobility Scheme.

This guidance is designed to be used alongside the specific Temporary Work Appendices of the Immigration Rules. The rules explain the requirements an applicant must meet, and this guidance provides additional information on how to consider their application.

You may also need to refer to the following sections of the rules, where relevant:

- Introduction of the Immigration Rules
- Part 9: Grounds for Refusal
- Appendix ATAS
- Appendix English Language
- Appendix KOL UK
- Appendix Finance

Paragraph references in this guidance refer to paragraphs in the Immigration Rules unless otherwise stated.

Contacts

If you have any questions about the guidance and your line manager or senior caseworker cannot help you or you think that the guidance has factual errors then email the Economic Migration Policy Unit.

If you notice any formatting errors in this guidance (broken links, spelling mistakes and so on) or have any comments about the layout or navigability of the guidance then you can email the Guidance Rules and Forms team.

Publication

Below is information on when this version of the guidance was published:

- version 31.0
- published for Home Office staff on 16 May 2024

Changes from last version of this guidance

This guidance has been updated in line with the Spring 2024 Immigration Rules changes. The following changes to the guidance have been made:

- new English language requirement for entry clearance applications by private servants in diplomatic households in the International Agreement route
- new evidential requirement for salary payments in the International Agreement route
- change in requirements in the Creative Worker route when there is no Code of Practice
- requirement to provide evidence of expenses paid by the sponsor in the Creative Worker route
- other minor Immigration Rules changes

Related content

Contents

Overview

This section provides an introduction to the Temporary Work routes.

The Temporary Work routes are:

- Creative Worker
- Charity Worker
- Religious Worker
- Government Authorised Exchange
- International Agreement
- Seasonal Worker

Requirements

The requirements applicants must meet are split into 3 parts:

- validity requirements - these outline the minimum criteria that must be met for the application to be fully considered - they ensure, for example, the correct form has been used and the applicant has supplied their identity documents - applications which do not meet these requirements are invalid and may be rejected
- suitability requirements – these check the suitability of the applicant to be granted any form of permission, not specifically whether they qualify in the job role - applicants must not fall for refusal on general grounds or be in breach of immigration laws - applications which do not meet these requirements should be refused
- eligibility requirements - these are the main criteria specific to the route they are applying under - applications which do not meet these requirements should be refused

Representatives

If an applicant has a UK-based representative, you must check that the representative is permitted to provide immigration advice or immigration services. They must be one of the following:

- registered with the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner (OISC)
- authorised by one of the following designated professional bodies or designated qualifying regulators:
 - the Law Society
 - the Law Society of Scotland
 - the Law Society of Northern Ireland
 - the General Council of the Bar
 - the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives
 - the Faculty of Advocates
 - the General Council of the Bar of Northern Ireland

- be exempt from the requirement to be registered or authorised - for example, the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 \(Part 5 Exemption: Licensed Sponsors\) Order 2022 exempts licensed sponsors from the requirement to be registered or authorised, provided any immigration advice or immigration services are given:
 - free of charge
 - in relation to an individual they are sponsoring (or, where relevant, their eligible family members)
 - in connection with an application by that individual for entry clearance or permission on a sponsored work or study route (or an application for entry clearance or permission by that individual's eligible family members that is dependent on that individual's application)

For further information on what the order permits, see section S6 of Part 2 of the sponsor guidance.

If the representative does not have the necessary permission to provide immigration advice or immigration services, you must direct all communications to the applicant instead.

Requesting more information

Applicants and their sponsors should provide all the necessary evidence and information with the application and certificate of sponsorship. If, however, there is a clear error or omission with the supporting evidence provided, it may be appropriate for you to discuss the application with a manager to consider contacting the applicant to invite them to provide additional evidence or information. Where possible, you should try to identify all areas where further information is required, so it can be requested at the same time.

Taking a fair and proportionate approach to assessment of evidence

You must review the information on the application form and other available evidence before deciding whether you are satisfied on the balance of probabilities (it is more likely than not) a requirement is met.

If the evidence with the application is meant to show the requirement is met and you are not satisfied the evidence is genuine, you should consider the guidance on false representations.

Official – sensitive: start of section

The information on this page has been removed as it is restricted for internal Home Office use.

The information on this page has been removed as it is restricted for internal Home Office use.

Official – sensitive: end of section

Format of evidence

The Immigration Rules no longer set out specific format requirements for most documents. This doesn't mean format is irrelevant – it will help you assess if a piece of evidence is genuine and if it provides the information needed for you to be satisfied a requirement is met. You must not refuse an application because the evidence is not in a particular format but may request alternative or additional evidence if you are not satisfied what the applicant (or their sponsor) has provided shows the requirements of the rules are met.

If evidence, such as a bank letter, does not include the information you would normally expect, you should consider whether to take further action to verify it.

Where evidence is missing or inadequate

The applicant will be told what evidence to provide as part of the application process. However, sometimes evidence is missing or inadequate to enable you to assess whether the requirement is met.

You should consider seeking further information or making verification checks when, for example:

- evidence is missing (for example a missing page from a series) you believe the applicant has, or could obtain
- evidence is inadequate but could be clarified, for example, if a letter from an official financial sponsor does not include all the information you would expect

You should check any discrepancies about information on the certificate of sponsorship with the sponsor.

You may decide to ask for further information from the applicant, sponsor, or issuing institution (for example, the bank which issued the applicant's financial documents) or make verification checks in other cases if you think it would help assess whether the requirements are met. If you are not sure whether this would help, you should discuss this with your manager.

When contacting the applicant or sponsor, they should be given 10 UK working days in which to provide a response.

You do not need to contact the applicant or sponsor if evidence is missing or inadequate, but:

- you do not need the information because you can find it elsewhere, for example, from the certificate of sponsorship
- receiving it would make no difference to the decision (for example because you would still refuse the application for other reasons)

If the evidence supplied is inadequate, you do not have to offer the applicant an opportunity to provide different evidence. For example, if the applicant provides bank statements and they do not show the required level of funds or the evidence is not sufficient, you do not need to check whether the applicant has another bank account which might meet the requirement.

Failure to supply requested information

If you request additional information from the applicant or their sponsor, you should ask them to provide it, or an explanation why they are unable to, within 10 working days of the date you send the request letter.

If you do not receive the requested information in this timeframe, you must assess whether any excuse provided is reasonable and if so, you should give the applicant more time to respond. If the applicant does not provide a reason or the reasons given are not satisfactory you may refuse the application.

Verification checks

You must conduct verification checks if they have any doubts about whether the supporting documents an applicant has submitted are genuine. If the application falls for refusal on other grounds, you do need to carry out verification checks, but you must explain in your decision that you reserve the right to carry out checks in any reconsideration.

Translating documents

If the documents provided are not in English or Welsh, the applicant must provide a certified translation.

Related content

Contents

Validity for entry clearance and permission to stay applications

This section tells you where to find the validity requirements an applicant must meet when they apply for entry clearance or permission to stay on a Temporary Work route.

Before considering suitability and eligibility, you must check the application is valid.

If you are not satisfied the application meets all the validity requirements, you should consider whether to request more information, reject the application or proceed to consider.

Irish citizens

Most Irish citizens do not need permission to live and work in the UK and therefore are not eligible to apply for permission under the Immigration Rules. You must reject any application for a visa from an Irish citizen as invalid, when made at or after 11pm on 31 December 2020, except where they are subject to:

- a deportation order made under section 5(1) of the Immigration Act 1971
- an exclusion decision, or an exclusion order made under regulation 23(5) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016
- a travel ban implemented under section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971

If an Irish citizen falls within one of the above categories, you should consider their application in line with the rules in the same way as any other applicant.

If further information is required, please contact the Common Travel Area (CTA) Policy Team.

The application

An application for entry clearance or permission to stay on a Temporary Work route must meet all the following requirements:

- any fee and Immigration Health Charge must have been paid (with the exception of the Seasonal Worker route, which does not require payment of the Immigration Health Charge)
- the applicant must have provided any required biometrics
- the applicant must have provided a passport or other travel document which satisfactorily establishes their identity and nationality
- the applicant must have a certificate of sponsorship that was issued to them no more than 3 months before the date of application

Application fees and Immigration Health Charge

You must be satisfied that the applicant has paid the relevant application fees and any Immigration Health Charge (sometimes called the Immigration Health Surcharge or IHS). If these haven't been paid, you should write to the applicant and request these. See further guidance on the Immigration Health Charge.

If you require further information regarding refunding applications, please see further guidance on the immigration and nationality refunds policy.

Biometrics and identity documents

You must be satisfied, where the applicant has provided their biometrics, these are verified against a valid passport or other travel document they have supplied.

Official – sensitive: start of section

The information on this page has been removed as it is restricted for internal Home Office use.

Official – sensitive: end of section

Certificate of sponsorship

The applicant must have a certificate of sponsorship. This is a virtual document (similar to a database record) which is assigned by the sponsor. Sponsors use a secure IT system called the sponsorship management system (SMS) to assign a certificate of sponsorship.

The reference number for the certificate should be provided in the application. If the applicant has not supplied the reference number, they must provide an explanation. If you are not satisfied the sponsor has assigned a certificate to the applicant, you may reject the application. If the reason the sponsor has not yet assigned a certificate is because of delays by UKVI (for example, a delay in processing a sponsor licence application or a request for certificates of sponsorship), you may exceptionally place the case on hold pending the outcome.

You must check the certificate of sponsorship was assigned to the applicant no more than 3 months before the date of application. If it was assigned too early, the application may be rejected.

For information on how to check the certificate information, refer to The certificate of sponsorship checking system. (Note the certificate of sponsorship will also need to be viewed when assessing the Eligibility requirements.)

Government or international scholarship agency awards - Government Authorised Exchange route only

Where an applicant on the Government Authorised Exchange route has received an award covering fees and living costs from a government or international scholarship agency in the 12 months before the date of application, the government or agency must provide written consent to the application. The letter of consent must be on the official letter-headed paper or stationery of the organisation or organisations, bearing the official stamp of that organisation and issued by an authorised official of that organisation. The documents must confirm the organisation gives the applicant consent to remain in or re-enter the UK.

Switching into Temporary Work routes

Applicants cannot normally switch into Temporary Work routes. The only exceptions are those who hold, or were last granted, permission as a Student can apply to switch into the Temporary Work - Government Authorised Exchange route, provided that:

- the applicant is, or was last, sponsored by either: a higher education provider with a track record of compliance; or an overseas higher education institution, to do a short-term study abroad programme in the UK
- the applicant has completed a UK recognised bachelor's or postgraduate degree during their last grant of permission
- the applicant is currently sponsored for either: a period of postgraduate professional training or work experience which is required to gain a professional qualification or registration in the same field as their degree; or an internship for up to 12 months which is directly related to their degree
- the applicant is not filling a permanent vacancy
- the sponsor must not intend to employ the applicant in the UK once the training or work experience is completed

Applicants cannot switch between the different Temporary Work routes; however, they can apply for extensions on the same Temporary Work route if they have not exceeded the maximum grant of permission allowed on that route.

Related content

Contents

Suitability for entry clearance and permission to stay applications

This section tells you about the suitability requirements that an applicant must meet when they apply for entry clearance or permission to stay on a Temporary Work route.

If you are not satisfied that the application meets all the suitability requirements, you must refuse the application.

You must check:

- that the applicant does not fall for refusal under Part 9: grounds for refusal of the Immigration Rules
- that where the applicant is applying for permission to stay, the applicant is not:
 - in breach of immigration laws, except where paragraph 39E applies, that period of overstaying will be disregarded
 - on immigration bail

Overstaying

You must check the applicant is not in breach of immigration laws, except where permitted by the Immigration Rules in respect of periods of overstaying. Full guidance on overstaying is available.

Immigration bail

Any applicant who is in the UK on immigration bail is not suitable for the Temporary Work routes. These individuals do not hold permission to be in the UK.

Related content

Contents

Eligibility for entry clearance and permission to stay applications

This section tells you about the eligibility requirements that an applicant must meet to be granted either entry clearance or permission to stay on the Temporary Work routes. If you are not satisfied that the application meets all the eligibility requirements, you must refuse the application.

Requirements for a grant of permission

The eligibility requirements can be found in the rules as set out below:

- entry requirement
- Tuberculosis certificate requirement (note that this does not apply to Seasonal Workers)
- sponsorship requirement
- genuineness requirement (note that this does not apply to Seasonal Workers)
- route-specific requirements, where applicable (such as the cooling-off period for Religious Workers and Charity Workers)
- financial requirement

Applications which do not meet these requirements must be refused.

Tuberculosis certificate

Where the application is for entry clearance on a Temporary Work route, you must check that the applicant has provided a valid tuberculosis (TB) certificate with their application if they have been residing within a country listed in Appendix Tuberculosis \(TB\) of the Immigration Rules for the 6 months immediately preceding the application.

If the applicant has not supplied a valid TB test certificate when they are required to do so, the application should be refused.

This requirement does not apply to Seasonal Workers.

There is further information regarding which applicants are required to obtain a TB certificate before applying and the valid test centres.

Sponsorship requirement

This section tells you about the requirements a migrant must meet to be issued a valid certificate of sponsorship (CoS) by a sponsor on a Temporary Work route. It tells you how to assess the CoS requirement, how to check that a CoS is valid using the CoS checking system and how to record it as used on the system.

Checking the validity of the CoS

A valid CoS must:

- have been issued by a licensed sponsor who must be 'A-rated', unless it is an extension application to continue working for the same employer as in their last grant of permission (note – Seasonal Workers cannot extend, so this exemption is inapplicable to them)
- have a reference number which links to a CoS checking service entry that names the applicant as the migrant
- confirm the sponsor is sponsoring the migrant on the Temporary Work route they have applied for
- confirm the relevant information under the 'Sponsorship requirement' section as required by the route-specific Appendix in the Immigration Rules
- show the same details as in the applicant's passport
- have been assigned no more than 3 months before the date of the application
- have a start date no more than 3 months after the date of the application
- not have been used for a previous application, if that application was approved or refused (but not rejected or withdrawn)
- not have been withdrawn by the sponsor or cancelled by the Home Office since it was assigned

Certificate of sponsorship checking system

When you check the CoS, you must:

- find it on the CoS checking system
- check the case type given on the caseworking system matches the type of CoS issued - you can find this on the top of the CoS
- record it as 'used' in all approval and refusal cases
- not mark it as 'used' if you are rejecting, withdrawing, or voiding the application, because the decision has not been made and they could use it again

Check the current status of the CoS

If the status of CoS on the checking system is:

- assigned, you may continue to assess the application
- suspended, you must:
 - not decide the case
 - keep it on hold
- withdrawn, you must refuse the application if the sponsor does not issue another CoS because it is no longer valid
- used, you must refuse the application if the sponsor does not issue another CoS because it is no longer valid

Status of CoS on the checking system	What you must do
Assigned	Continue to assess the application.
Suspended	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • not decide the case • keep it on hold • contact the sponsor licensing unit (SLU) to find out if they will be re-instating the sponsor or if it will be suspended indefinitely, and what information can be shared with the applicant If they do not issue a new CoS, you must refuse the application.
Withdrawn	Refuse the application if the sponsor does not issue another CoS because it is no longer valid.
Used	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • check to see if a new CoS has been issued • if not, you must refuse the application because there is no valid CoS

Licensed sponsor

The sponsor must hold a valid Temporary Work sponsor licence in the route the applicant is applying for. The sponsor must also be A-rated, unless the applicant is applying for an extension to continue working for the same sponsor. See the sponsorship guidance for more details.

You must confirm these requirements are met by accessing the Certificate of Sponsorship Checking System. You can contact the Sponsor Licensing Unit (SLU) to find out more information about the status of a sponsor's licence if needed.

If the applicant's sponsor loses its licence while the application is under consideration, you have a duty to inform the applicant promptly.

You must only inform the applicant their sponsor no longer has a licence, not the reasons why. The only exception is if the licence was revoked for reasons directly linked to this particular application, and those reasons therefore have particular relevance to the refusal – for example, you are refusing on genuine vacancy grounds (see below) as well as the fact the sponsor is no longer licensed.

Temporary Work: searching the certificate of sponsorship checking system

You can access the CoS checking system using your username and password. To access the search function, click 'CoS check.' The CoS checker times out every 30 minutes, so you may need to log in again after this time.

You can search the system for the CoS using the either:

- CoS number
- applicant details
- sponsor details

The more information you provide, the narrower the search will be.

Searching using applicant's details

If you select this option, you can search by:

- passport or travel document number
- family name
- given name
- nationality
- date of birth
- gender

Searching using sponsor details

If you select this option, you can search by:

- sponsor licence number
- sponsor name
- sponsor's address
- sponsor's postcode

Genuineness requirement

When applying for entry clearance or permission, you must be satisfied that the applicant:

- genuinely intends to undertake the role described on the certificate of sponsorship (CoS)
- is capable of undertaking the role described on the CoS
- does not intend to undertake employment other than in the role for which they are being sponsored, or as otherwise permitted within the conditions of grant

To assess this, you may request:

- additional information and evidence, and refuse the application if the information or evidence is not provided (you must receive any documents requested at the address given in the request within 10 working days of the date the request is made)
- the applicant attends an interview, and refuse the application if they fail to comply with such request without giving a reasonable explanation

To make the above assessment, you may take into account the applicant's:

- knowledge of the role
- relevant experience of the skills needed to do the role
- knowledge of the sponsor in the UK
- explanation of how they were recruited
- any other relevant information

You will not usually need to undertake further checks to establish that these requirements are met. You should ask them to do so only after you have assessed whether the application should be refused with the information already available and when:

- you have concerns individual sponsors are assigning unusually large numbers of CoS for the same type of role
- there are reasonable grounds to suspect the applicant will not be working in the role described on the CoS
- the job description on the CoS is unusual for the route the applicant is applying under
- intelligence suggests applicants are linked to:
 - extremism
 - terrorism
 - modern slavery
 - other illegal activity

The genuineness test does not apply to applicants under the Seasonal Worker route.

Compliance with specified employment regulations

You must refuse the application if you have reasonable grounds to believe the job the applicant is being sponsored to do does not comply with either the National Minimum Wage Regulations or the Working Time Regulations.

Some Religious Workers may be exempt in line with Section 44A of the National Minimum Wage Act 1998, and Charity Workers should not be paid or otherwise remunerated, including receipt of benefits in kind, except for reasonable expenses as defined in Section 44 of the Act:

- Section 44 the National Minimum Wage Act 1998
- Section 44A of the National Minimum Wage Act 1998

If the job is not exempt under Section 44 or Section 44A, for detailed guidance, see:

- Calculating the national minimum wage
- Minimum wage for different types of work
- National Minimum Wage and Living Wage: accommodation
- National Minimum Wage \(HMRC manual\)

The most well-known aspect of the Working Time Regulations is the maximum weekly working hours. If a sponsor states the worker has opted out, you should ask for evidence of this. The regulations also cover other important protections, outlined at the links below. If a sponsor claims an exemption applies to any of these protections, you can ask for an explanation and refuse the application if you are not satisfied:

- Holiday entitlement
- Rest breaks at work
- Night working hours

The guidance linked to above may help you in assessing cases against both sets of regulations. Warning signs to be aware of include:

- long shifts without the daily or weekly rest breaks workers would normally be entitled to
- claims that work is “unmeasured” for either or both sets of regulations
- average hours agreements which seem unrealistic in the context of the job
- large deductions from salary, for accommodation or other reasons

These signs are often likely to be seen in relation to “live in” roles, such as domestic staff. However, you should be mindful that both sets of regulations are complex and there are a number of exemptions that may apply to an individual case. If you are in doubt, you should consider requesting additional information from the sponsor or seeking advice from the Economic Migration Policy team via the Work and Study Technical Team.

Related content

Contents

Financial requirement

This section explains how to assess the financial requirement (previously known as maintenance). You should refer to Appendix Finance.

An applicant will automatically meet the financial requirement listed when they are applying for permission to stay in the UK, having been in the UK for at least 12 months with permission on the date of application (which means that Seasonal Workers and Charity Workers will automatically be unable meet the requirement in this way).

However, if the above does not apply the applicant must meet either of the below requirements:

- the applicant must have funds of at least £1,270, that they have held for a period of 28 days as specified in Appendix Finance
- the applicant's A rated sponsor must confirm on the certificate of sponsorship that they will, if it is necessary, maintain and accommodate the applicant up to the end of the first month of their employment for an amount of at least £1,270

You must refuse the applicant if they cannot fulfil the financial requirements, even if they meet all other requirements of the Immigration Rules.

If the applicant's sponsor has certified maintenance on the certificate of sponsorship (CoS), no further evidence is required.

Related content

Contents

Route-specific requirements

Creative Workers

The requirements for this route are listed in Appendix Temporary Work - Creative Worker of the Immigration Rules. This route is for applicants who are entering the UK to work in the creative sector.

Creative Worker visa concession

Applicants must get entry clearance before they come to the UK unless they are a non-visa national seeking entry for a period of 3 months or less under the Creative Worker visa concession. Applicants must meet all the eligibility criteria set out in CRV 3.2. including having a previously arranged Certificate of Sponsorship (CoS) from an approved sponsor, which is then activated at the border.

Certificates of Sponsorship

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they confirm certain points, including:

- that the applicant is seeking entry or permission to stay in the UK to work or perform in the creative sector
- either:
 - the applicant will comply with their relevant Code of Practice under Appendix Creative Worker Codes of Practice, where one exists for their occupation
 - be performing a role in the creative industries that appears in Appendix Skilled Occupations and be able to demonstrate that they can make a unique contribution to creative life in the UK

To issue a CoS for migrants to perform or work in dance, theatre, opera, film, television, or as a fashion model, sponsors must follow the requirements listed in Appendix Creative Worker Codes of Practice.

Where a Code of Practice does not exist, an applicant must be able to demonstrate that the role they are doing is an occupation within the creative industries listed in Appendix Skilled Occupations. This can include the technical or support staff accompanying other eligible Creative Workers applying in the route.

An applicant must also be able to demonstrate that they can make a unique contribution to creative life in the UK. Examples of how an applicant can demonstrate they will be making a unique contribution to creative life in the UK include, but are not limited to, where the applicant:

- has international status
- is performing a highly specialist or unusual role
- is performing in a certain style unlikely to be commonly available in the UK
- is needed for continuity

Expenses

The applicant must provide details of any transport, living allowances and other expenses paid by the sponsor to the applicant and whether the sponsor will seek to recoup these costs, either through payroll deductions or any other means.

If any expenses that are due to be repaid by the applicant result in the applicant's pay being below National Minimum Wage the applicant must be refused.

Group certificates of sponsorship

Sponsors can issue a group CoS for a performer and their entourage. An entourage can include people whose work is directly related to the employment of an entertainer, artist, dancer, musician or model or to a dramatic production. Members of an entourage must have proven technical or other specialist skills.

If the work of the applicant is directly related to the employment of an entertainer or a cultural artist whose application has been refused, all applications within the group will be refused.

Multiple engagements or performances: certificates of sponsorship

A Creative Worker may need to perform or work at a number of venues.

If they have a single sponsor, for example an agent, and there are no more than 14 calendar days between each engagement, the sponsor can issue a single CoS to cover the whole period.

If, however, they have multiple sponsors, for example individual venues, producers or promoters, each sponsor must issue a CoS to cover their own show (see CRV 4.4.).

Regardless of whether the worker has a single sponsor or multiple sponsors, there must not be more than 14 calendar days between each engagement in the UK. However, any time spent outside the UK by the worker will not count towards this 14-day period, including the dates of their departure from and return to the UK (see CRV 4.3. in relation to workers with single sponsors and the definition of 'consecutive engagements' in relation to workers with multiple sponsors).

Charity Workers

The requirements for this route are listed in Appendix Temporary Work - Charity Worker of the Immigration Rules. This route is for those wanting to undertake unpaid voluntary fieldwork which contributes directly to the achievement or advancement of the sponsor's charitable purpose in the UK, for a maximum period of 12 months.

'Voluntary fieldwork' is defined as activities which would not normally be offered at a waged or salaried rate, and which contribute directly to the achievement or advancement of the sponsor's charitable purpose. It does not include work in support of the sponsor's charitable purpose including, for example, routine back office administrative roles, retail or other sales roles, fund-raising roles and roles involved in the maintenance of the sponsor's offices and other assets.

This route cannot be used to temporarily fill a position which is required on a permanent basis.

Applicants on the Charity Worker route must be aged 18 or over on the date of application.

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they confirm certain points, including that the applicant:

- will be undertaking voluntary fieldwork which contributes directly to the achievement or advancement of the sponsor's charitable purpose
- will not receive any form of payment or remuneration, including benefits in kind except reasonable expenses outlined in section 44 of the National Minimum Wage Act
- will not be filling a permanent position, including on a temporary basis

There is a 'cooling off period' which requires an applicant who is applying for entry clearance on this route to have not had permission as either a Religious Worker or a Charity Worker at any time during the 12 months immediately before the date of application, unless they can show that they were not in the UK at any time during those 12 months (CW 3.3.).

Religious Workers

The requirements for this route are listed in Appendix Temporary Work - Religious Worker in the Immigration Rules. This route is for applicants coming to work temporarily in the UK for a maximum of 24 months as:

- religious workers undertaking supporting activities, without leading a congregation in performing rites, rituals and preaching the essentials of the creed (such applicants should instead apply on the T2 Minister of Religion route)
- visiting religious workers who:
 - are employed overseas doing the same work as they are seeking to come to do in the UK (although the exact detail of their duties in the UK may differ)
 - have ongoing employment, and the time spent in the UK is consistent with their employment
- members of religious orders, for example monastic communities of monks, nuns, or similar religious communities

Applicants on the Religious Worker route must be aged 18 or over on the date of application.

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they confirm certain points, including:

- that the role involves performing religious duties within, or directed by the sponsor's organisation, to support the activities of the religious institution
- that the religious duties do not include work which falls under a role of a Minister of Religion (which means the applicant must not have core duties of leading a congregation in performing the rites and rituals of the faith and in preaching the essentials of the creed)
- whether the applicant is a member of the sponsor's order, if the sponsor is a religious order
- that the applicant will receive pay and conditions at least equal to those given to settled workers in the same role
- that the pay complies with or is exempt from the National Minimum Wage
- that the sponsor has met the resident labour consideration requirements, namely that either:
 - the role the migrant will be doing is supernumerary and they will not be filling a vacant position that could otherwise be filled by a settled worker
 - the role the migrant will be doing involves living mainly within and being a member of a religious order, which is a lineage of communities or of people who live in some way set apart from society in line with their specific religious devotion, for example, an order of nuns or monks
 - the sponsor holds national records of all available individuals, details of those records and confirms that the records show that no suitable settled worker is available to fill the role
 - a national recruitment search was undertaken, providing the details outlined at RW 4.2.(d)

There is a 'cooling off period' which requires an applicant for entry clearance on this route to have not had permission as either a Religious Worker or a Charity Worker at any time during the 12 months immediately before the date of application, unless they can show that they were not in the UK at any time during those 12 months (RW 3.3.).

Government Authorised Exchange (GAE)

The requirements for this route are listed in Appendix Temporary Work - Government Authorised Exchange of the Immigration Rules. This route is for applicants coming to the UK for a period of 12 or 24 months (depending on the scheme) for approved exchange schemes that aim to share knowledge, experience, and best practice.

This route cannot be used to fill job vacancies or bring unskilled labour to the UK.

GAE sponsor

Individual employers and organisations are not allowed to sponsor migrants on this route, even if they are licensed as sponsors under other categories of Temporary Work.

A Temporary Work - GAE sponsor must be an overarching body that manages the exchange scheme and has the support of a UK government department.

The sponsor must be authorised to sponsor individuals both in the role specified on the Certificate of Sponsorship as well as on the particular scheme that the applicant has applied to participate in. When assessing this, you should refer to Appendix Government Authorised Exchange schemes.

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they confirm certain points, including:

- that the role meets the requirements of the individual exchange scheme as set out in Appendix GAE schemes
- that the role will not fill a vacancy in the UK workforce
- that the role appears in Table 1 or Table 2 of Appendix Skilled Occupations
- whether the Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS) requirement in Appendix ATAS applies

Supernumerary role

The GAE route cannot be used to facilitate the supply of labour.

All roles sponsored on the route must be supernumerary, this means a role that is in addition to the regular, required, or standard number of staff at a given organisation that does not fill a permanent position or ongoing vacancy in the organisation's workforce, even on a temporary basis.

Potential indicators that the role is not supernumerary include, but are not limited to:

- where the salary arrangements exceed what would normally be expected for an individual undertaking the programme the applicant is applying to undertake - for example, where the salary is high enough that a worker in that role would meet the salary requirements on another Worker or Temporary Worker route for which that role is eligible
- where the job description or information provided about the role suggests it is not in addition to normal staffing requirements - for example, their working hours exceed 37 hours per week for a full-time role

You must consider the employment details provided in the Certificate of Sponsorship and all supporting evidence in the round.

When you have concerns that a role is not supernumerary you must refer to an SEO in the first instance before any further action is taken. Any concerns should then be raised with the Economic Migration Policy Unit.

ATAS requirement

For applications on the GAE route made from 21 May 2021, applicants must provide a valid ATAS certificate if all of the following apply:

- they are being sponsored on the Government Authorised Exchange route by a sponsor which is also a licensed Student sponsor (these will mainly be universities)
- they are not one of the exempt nationals listed in paragraph ATAS 3.1
- their job is in one of the occupation codes listed in paragraph ATAS 1.2(a)
- the job includes an element of PhD-level research in a relevant subject (and these subjects are listed in paragraph ATAS 4.1)

The details are set out in Appendix ATAS. Sponsors should confirm on the applicant's CoS whether the ATAS requirement applies. If the first three bullet points above apply, but the sponsor has not provided a note to say whether the ATAS requirement applies and the applicant has not provided an ATAS certificate, you should contact the sponsor to confirm whether the requirement applies. If the sponsor fails to provide the necessary confirmation, you should consider refusing the application (paragraph GAE 5.4.(d)).

If the sponsor confirms the ATAS requirement applies, and the applicant has not provided an ATAS certificate, you should consider contacting the applicant (see Requesting more information). Processing an ATAS application takes at least 20 working days, and can take 30 or more working days between April and September. You should allow the standard 10 working days for the applicant to respond, but consider extending the deadline if the applicant confirms they have submitted their ATAS application and are waiting for a response.

If an applicant does not provide a copy of a valid ATAS certificate when required, you should consider refusing the application (paragraph GAE 3.2A).

Seasonal Worker

The requirements for this route are listed in Appendix Temporary Work - Seasonal Worker of the Immigration Rules. This route is for migrants coming to the UK as seasonal workers in the horticulture sector or the poultry production sector through an approved scheme operator.

Work in the 'horticulture sector' means those growing:

- protected vegetables – those grown in glasshouse systems
- field vegetables – those grown outdoors, including vegetables, herbs, leafy salads and potatoes
- soft fruit – those grown outdoors or under cover for example in glasshouses or polytunnels - includes strawberries, raspberries, blackcurrants, blueberries and all ribes and rubus species
- top fruit (orchard fruit) - trees that bear fruit for example apples, plums, cherries, apricots
- vine and bines – both twining or climbing flexible stems of certain plants, for example hops is a bine, and grapes is a vine
- mushrooms – typically covers agaricus bisporus species but can also include more exotic species; normally grown indoors
- bulbs and cut flowers, such as daffodils, grown outdoors and indoors

- pot plants, such as seasonal bedding plants like pansies, violas, germaniums and poinsettias
- hardy ornamental nursery stock such as Christmas trees, shrubs, roses, ornamental trees and perennials
- tree and forest nurseries

Work in the 'poultry production sector' means undertaking one of the following roles:

- butcher (occupation code 5431)
- bird / game dresser (occupation code 5433)
- killer and plucker (occupation code 5433)
- plucker (occupation code 5433)
- poulterer (occupation code 5433)
- poultry processor (occupation code 5433)
- poultry sticker (occupation code 5433)
- trusser (occupation code 5433)
- food operative (occupation code 8111)
- poultry catcher / handler (occupation code 9111)
- poultry vaccinator (occupation code 9119)
- poultry meat packer (occupation code 9132)

'Seasonal work' means employment which fluctuates or is restricted according to the season or time of the year.

This route is subject to a quota of 47,000 for 2024, set by the Home Office, and split between the scheme operators. 2,000 of these visas are reserved for the poultry production sector.

Applicants for work in horticulture can come to the UK for a maximum period of 6 months' employment in the UK within any 12-month period under the scheme.

Applicants for work in poultry production can come to the UK for the period from 2 October to 31 December (inclusive) each year.

The applicant must be 18 or over on the date of application.

The applicant must have a Certificate of Sponsorship, which must:

- confirm the applicant's name, that they are being sponsored as a Seasonal Worker, details of the job and salary the sponsor is offering them
- include a start date, stated by the sponsor, which is no more than three months after the date of application
- not have been used in a previous application which was either granted or refused (but can have been used in a previous application which was rejected as invalid, made void or withdrawn)
- not have been withdrawn by the sponsor or cancelled by the Home Office
- confirm the role meets all relevant legislation, such as the relevant Agricultural Wages Order rate where this applies, and the Working Time Regulations

- confirm the applicant will be paid at least £11.44 for each hour worked (this applies to CoS issued on or after 04 April)
- confirm workers sponsored to work in horticulture roles or in poultry production roles, other than those in occupation code 5431 or 5433 (such as the roles that are not listed in Appendix Skilled Occupations) will receive at least 32 hours paid employment each week (this applies to CoS issued after 12 April 2023)
- confirm workers sponsored in poultry production under occupation code 5431 (butchers) or 5433 (poultry dressers), will be paid at least £38,700 per year, pro rata (this applies to CoS issued on or after 04 April 2024)

All workers pay must be compliant with wider UK law and National Minimum Wage regulations. The National Minimum wage was increased on 1 April 2024.

If the applicant is being sponsored to work more than 48 hours a week, only the salary for the first 48 hours a week will be considered towards the salary threshold of £38,700.

If the applicant is being sponsored to work a pattern where the regular hours are not the same each week, resulting in uneven pay:

- work in excess of 48 hours in some weeks can be considered towards the salary threshold of £38,700, providing the average over a regular cycle (which can be less than, but not more than, 17 weeks) is not more than 48 hours a week
- any unpaid rest weeks will count towards the average when considering whether the salary thresholds are met
- any unpaid rest weeks will not count as absences from employment

For example, an applicant who works a pattern of 60 hours a week for £20 per hour for 2 weeks, followed by an unpaid rest week, will be considered to work 40 hours a week on average and have a salary of £41,600 (£20 x 40 x 52) per year.

International Agreement

The requirements for this route are listed in Appendix Temporary Work - International Agreement of the Immigration Rules. This route includes:

- employees of overseas governments and international organisations
- private servants in diplomatic households

Applicants on the International Agreement route must be aged 18 or over on the date of application.

ATAS requirement

For applications on the International Agreement route made from 21 May 2021, applicants must provide a valid ATAS certificate if all of the following apply:

- they are being sponsored on the International Agreement route by a sponsor which is also a licensed Student sponsor (these will mainly be universities)
- they are not one of the exempt nationals listed in paragraph ATAS 3.1
- their job is in one of the occupation codes listed in paragraph ATAS 1.2(a)
- the job includes an element of PhD-level research in a relevant subject (and these subjects are listed in paragraph ATAS 4.1)

The details are set out in Appendix ATAS. Sponsors should confirm on the applicant's CoS whether the ATAS requirement applies. If the first 3 bullet points above apply, but the sponsor has not provided a note to say whether the ATAS requirement applies and the applicant has not provided an ATAS certificate, you should contact the sponsor to confirm whether the requirement applies. If the sponsor fails to provide the necessary confirmation, you should consider refusing the application (paragraph IA 4.1A).

If the sponsor confirms the ATAS requirement applies, and the applicant has not provided an ATAS certificate, you should consider contacting the applicant (see Requesting more information). Processing an ATAS application takes at least 20 working days, and can take 30 or more working days between April and September. You should allow the standard 10 working days for the applicant to respond, but consider extending the deadline if the applicant confirms they have submitted their ATAS application and are waiting for a response.

If an applicant does not provide a copy of a valid ATAS certificate when required, you should consider refusing the application (paragraph IA 5.1A).

Employees of overseas governments and international organisations

When a sponsor issues a CoS to employees of overseas governments and international organisations, they confirm certain points, including that the applicant:

- is under a contract of employment with the overseas government or international organisation and wants to come to the UK to provide a service covered under international law
- if working on a contract basis (being supplied as labour from one organisation to another), is not filling a permanent position, including on a temporary basis
- will not take up any job for the sponsor, other than the one for which the certificate of sponsorship was issued
- will not be working as a private servant in a diplomatic household or as a domestic worker in a private household

The CoS must confirm whether the Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS) requirement in Appendix ATAS applies.

Private servants in diplomatic households

When a sponsor issues a CoS to private servants in diplomatic households, they confirm certain points, including that the applicant:

- will be employed by and as a private servant in the household of either:
 - a member of staff of a diplomatic or consular mission who has diplomatic privileges and immunity as defined by the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations
 - an official employed by an international organisation with certain privileges and immunities under UK or international law
- intends to work full-time in domestic employment
- will not take up any other form of job for the sponsor other than as a private servant in the specified household
- is not related to the sponsor or the sponsor's spouse, either by blood or by marriage - this includes but is not limited to the spouse or unmarried partner, child, parent, grandparent, or sibling of either the sponsor or the sponsor's spouse
- will leave the UK when their permission to stay has expired

The CoS must confirm whether the Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS) requirement in Appendix ATAS applies.

Applicants must provide written evidence of the terms and conditions of their employment in the UK in the form set out in Appendix Domestic Worker Statement of the Immigration Rules. This must be signed by the applicant and their employer, who must be a diplomat, or an official employed by an international organisation. It must confirm that the applicant will be paid at least the national minimum wage. In addition, the employer must provide a declaration that the work the applicant will do will not be within the meaning of paragraph 57 of the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2015.

Applicants applying for permission to stay must provide evidence of payment of their salary for at least 3 months before the date of their application, with the most recently dated piece of financial evidence dated within 31 days before the date of application. The evidence provided should include payslips and show the transfer of each payment into the applicant's bank account or onto their pre-paid card, for example a FOREX card. Evidence provided must comply with Appendix Finance.

Applicants applying for entry clearance must meet the English language requirement, with skills equivalent to at least level B1 of the Common European Framework of References for English language in all 4 components (reading, writing, speaking and listening). To meet this requirement, you must be satisfied the applicant meets the requirements in paragraphs IA.7.1. and IA 7.2. and Appendix English Language. To assess whether the English language requirement is met, you should refer to the English language guidance.

Private servants in diplomatic households are no longer eligible to apply for settlement on this route.

Compliance with UK employment laws: National minimum wage (“NMW”)

Official – sensitive: start of section

The information on this page has been removed as it is restricted for internal Home Office use.

Official – sensitive: end of section

Private servants in diplomatic households should be paid at least the NMW.

Employers of private servants in diplomatic households must provide a statement confirming that the work carried out in the UK does not meet the terms of paragraph 57 of the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2015. This section provides an exemption from the NMW for those living as part of the family.

All private servants in diplomatic households must hold a contract using the template provided in Appendix Domestic Worker Statement. This contract was revised in April 2015 and must be completed in full for all applications for entry clearance and permission to stay. You must check that the salary arrangements meet the requirements of the National Minimum Wage Regulations. These rates are amended, usually annually, so you must make sure that you are using the correct rates. There is a calculator at GOV.UK, that can be used to check whether salaries meet the relevant rates. You must make sure that salaries quoted in monthly (or other) time periods are prorated to a weekly sum. The calculation for this would be to take a monthly sum, multiply it by 12, and divide by 52.

Please note that the only amount that may be offset against the NMW is an accommodation offset. The amount is specified in related link GOV.UK - National minimum wage: accommodation. Allowances for items such as food, travel, phone calls, and so on, cannot be offset against the NMW entitlement.

Further to IA 4.4. and the Compliance with specified employment regulations section of this guidance, you must pay particular attention to the employment terms and conditions declared in the Appendix Domestic Worker Statement provided by the applicant.

Where you are not satisfied that the NMW entitlement is met, the application should be refused.

Period of stay

The maximum period of entry clearance that can be granted on this route is 24 months at a time.

However, private servants in diplomatic households may apply to extend their stay for up to 24 months at a time, up to a total period of 5 years.

Related content

Contents

Temporary Work: dependants

A dependent partner and dependent children can apply on this route. Please see the dependants guidance.

The following dependants are allowed to come to the UK to join a person granted entry clearance or permission to stay on the Temporary Work routes, provided they meet the requirements of the rules:

- dependent partner
- dependent children

Related content

Contents

Age and parental consent requirement

This section tells you how to consider the age and parental consent requirements for each route.

Where the route permits applicants to be under 18 years of age on the date of application, the following requirements must be met:

- the application must be supported by the applicant's parents or legal guardian, or by just one parent if that parent has sole legal responsibility for the child
- the applicant's parents or legal guardian, or just one parent if that parent has sole responsibility for the child, must confirm that they consent to the arrangements for the applicant's travel to and reception arrangements in the UK (for entry clearance applications) and to the applicant's living and care arrangements in the UK (for all applications)

Temporary Work route	Age requirement
Creative Worker	No minimum age
Charity Worker	The applicant must be no less than 18 years of age on the date of application
Religious Worker	The applicant must be no less than 18 years of age on the date of application
Government Authorised Exchange	No minimum age
International Agreement	The applicant must be no less than 18 years of age on the date of application
Seasonal Worker	The applicant must be no less than 18 years of age on the date of application

Related content

Contents

Grant or refuse

This section tells you how to grant or refuse an application.

The actions you must take will differ dependant on the type of application under consideration:

- entry clearance
- entry at a UK port
- permission to stay

Dates of permission granted

You should grant entry clearance with effect from either the date of decision or a date requested by the applicant, whichever is later.

Permission to stay should be granted with effect from the date of decision.

If the end date on the certificate passed 14 or more days before you make the decision, you cannot grant permission.

For applications for permission to stay, you may exceptionally grant 14 days permission to stay to allow the applicant to make a further application or leave the UK without becoming an overstayer. You should only do this because of delays outside the applicant's control, such as:

- Home Office process delays
- suspension then reinstatement of their sponsor's licence

Length of grant

Entry clearance must be valid from the date the applicant intends to travel to the UK.

You may grant permission up to the maximum period allowed for entry on the route, as set out in the table below.

Temporary Work route	Period of grant: applications for entry clearance	Period of grant: applications for permission to stay	Maximum time permitted on route
Government Authorised Exchange	The period of the role on the certificate of sponsorship (CoS), plus up to 14 days before that period and 14 days after	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• the period of the role on the CoS, plus up to 14 days• where the applicant is applying to participate in the	25 months

Temporary Work route	Period of grant: applications for entry clearance	Period of grant: applications for permission to stay	Maximum time permitted on route
		same scheme, if the applicant was initially granted less than the maximum initial grant period permitted on the scheme, up to the balance of the period allowed on that scheme as per Appendix Government Authorised Exchange schemes, plus 14 days whichever is shorter
Seasonal worker	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if for a role in horticulture, a maximum period of 6 months stay in the UK in any 12-month period • if for a role in poultry production, between 3 October and 31 December (inclusive) • the period of the role on the CoS plus up to 14 days before and after the period of permission granted whichever is shorter	No extension permitted under the Immigration Rules	6 months in any 12-month period

Temporary Work route	Period of grant: applications for entry clearance	Period of grant: applications for permission to stay	Maximum time permitted on route
Charity Worker	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12 months • the period of the role on the CoS plus up to 14 days before and after the period of permission granted whichever is shorter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the period of the role on the CoS, plus up to 14 days • if the applicant was initially granted less than the maximum initial grant period permitted, the balance of the period allowed whichever is shorter	12 months, please note there is a 12-month cooling off period for this route, as per CW 3.3.
Creative Worker	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12 months • if the applicant has consecutive engagements, the period of the role on the CoS plus 14 days before the first engagement and 14 days after the final engagement • if the applicant does not have consecutive engagements, the period of the role on the CoS plus 14 days before and after whichever is shorter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the period of the role on the CoS, plus up to 14 days • if the applicant is applying using a CoS assigned by a different sponsor and was initially granted less than 12 months, the balance of that period • if the applicant is applying using a CoS assigned by the same sponsor, the balance of the maximum period allowed (24 months) whichever is shorter	12 months if changing employer or 24 months for the same employer as the applicant's last grant of permission

Temporary Work route	Period of grant: applications for entry clearance	Period of grant: applications for permission to stay	Maximum time permitted on route
Creative Worker visa concession	A maximum of 3 months	No extension	3 months
Religious worker	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 24 months • the period of the role on the CoS plus up to 14 days before and after the period of permission granted whichever is shorter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the period of the role on the CoS, plus up to 14 days • if the applicant was initially granted less than the maximum initial grant period permitted, the balance of the period allowed whichever is shorter	24 months, please note there is a 12-month cooling off period for this route, as per RW 3.3.
International Agreement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 24 months • the period of the role on the CoS plus up to 14 days before and after the period of permission granted whichever is shorter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the period of the role on the CoS, plus up to 14 days • if the applicant was initially granted less than the maximum initial grant period permitted, the balance of the period allowed for the type of worker whichever is shorter	Private servants in diplomatic households may apply to extend their stay for up to 24 months at a time, up to a total period of 5 years. Employees of an overseas government or other international organisations may apply to extend up to a total period of 24 months.

Related content

Contents

Grant or refuse entry clearance

This section tells you how to grant or refuse an application for entry clearance on the Temporary Work routes.

Grant entry clearance

You must grant entry clearance if the applicant meets all the requirements listed in the relevant appendix.

Temporary Work: Creative Workers

For applicants seeking entry for multiple engagements or performances, you may grant entry clearance to cover the whole period, providing there are not more than 14 calendar days between periods of engagements. Any time the worker spends outside the UK will not count towards the 14 days.

eVisas

Applicants who are able to apply using the 'UK Immigration: ID Check' app will receive an eVisa (a digital record of their immigration status) as evidence of their permission.

Applicants, who are not eligible or cannot use the 'UK Immigration: ID Check' app, will continue to be issued with a visa vignette and biometric residence permit (BRP) and will not receive an eVisa.

If the entry clearance application is successful and the person will be issued with a BRP, they must be given a 90-day visa to allow them to enter the UK and collect their BRP after they have arrived in the UK.

Biometric information

You must check the biometric residence permit (BRP) system before you submit a BRP card production request.

Refuse entry clearance

You must refuse the application if you are not satisfied the applicant has met all the suitability and eligibility requirements of the relevant Temporary Work Appendix, or if any of the grounds for refusal in Part 9: Grounds for Refusal apply.

Rights of appeal and administrative review: entry clearance applications

If an application for entry clearance is refused, the applicant cannot appeal against our decision. However, if they think the Home Office has made an error in considering their application, they can apply for an administrative review.

Related content

Contents

Grant or refuse entry at a UK port

This section tells Border Force officers how to grant or refuse entry at a UK port for applications made under a Temporary Work route.

Granting permission to enter

Before the Border Force officer grants permission to enter to someone seeking entry, they must be satisfied that:

- the applicant has valid entry clearance or permission to stay in the UK on a Temporary Work route, unless they are applying for permission to enter on the Creative Worker route and CRV 3.2. applies
- there are no reasons to believe the applicant provided false information to obtain the entry clearance or permission to stay in the UK, nor that circumstances have changed since it was issued
- none of the general grounds for refusal in Part 9: Grounds for Refusal of the Immigration Rules apply

Refusing permission to enter

The Border Force officer must take into account the applicant's continuing permission if they are considering refusing them after their return from a short absence abroad.

If the Border Force officer is considering cancelling an applicant's entry clearance or permission to stay on any Temporary Work route, they must refer to Part 9 of the Immigration Rules.

If the applicant is subject to a deportation order, any permission they have been granted is cancelled. The Border Force officer must refuse under paragraph 9.2.1.(c) of the Immigration Rules.

Official – sensitive: start of section

The information on this page has been removed as it is restricted for internal Home Office use.

Official – sensitive: end of section

Creative Worker: no entry clearance

To enter without entry clearance, passengers must:

- be non-visa nationals
- be seeking permission to enter on the Creative Worker route for 3 months or less

- be able to present a valid certificate of sponsorship (CoS) reference number and proof of funds
- not satisfy any of the general grounds for refusal in Part 9: Grounds for Refusal of the Immigration Rules

Check the certificate of sponsorship (CoS)

The Border Force officer must check the CoS number is valid by searching the sponsorship management system (SMS). If the number is not valid, they must refuse permission to enter.

If the number is valid and the Border Force officer grants permission to enter, they must confirm that the CoS has been used on SMS. They do not need to do this if the passenger is re-entering the UK on a CoS which has been used.

Financial requirements

For information on the financial requirements for Temporary Work routes, see the full guidance on financial requirements.

Granting permission to enter

The Border Force officer must grant permission to enter on code 4 if both of the following apply:

- the requirements in the relevant Temporary Work Appendix have been met
- none of the general grounds for refusal in Part 9: Grounds for Refusal of the Immigration Rules apply

Length of grant

Passengers can enter the UK up to 14 days before the date they start their job (the start date is the date given by their sponsor on the CoS), and they can remain for either:

- up to 14 days after the last job
- a maximum period of 3 months

For passengers seeking entry for multiple engagements or performances, the Border Force officer must grant permission to cover the whole period, providing there are not more than 14 calendar days between periods of engagements, but any time spent outside the UK will not be counted towards these 14 days.

Passengers who enter on this route in this way without entry clearance cannot extend their stay in the UK.

Refusing permission to enter

For more information on refusing permission to enter, see Part 9: Grounds for Refusal.

Dependants

The Border Force officer can grant entry on code 1 (for the same period as the main applicant) to the partner or child of a Temporary Work - Creative Worker route applicant who seeks entry without entry clearance providing they:

- are not a visa national
- are seeking entry at the same time as the person they are a dependant of, and who meets the requirements at CRV 3.2.

Related content

Contents

Grant or refuse permission to stay

This section tells you how to grant or refuse permission to stay on the relevant Temporary Work route.

Grant permission to stay

You can grant permission to stay on code 4 conditions if the applicant meets all the requirements.

Biometric information

Applicants who are able to apply using the 'UK Immigration: ID Check' app will receive an eVisa (a digital record of their immigration status) as evidence of their permission. Those applicants who receive an eVisa and are visa nationals will also be issued with a physical document biometric residence permit.

Other applicants, who are not eligible or cannot use the 'UK Immigration: ID Check' app, will continue to be issued with a biometric residence permit (BRP) and will not receive an eVisa.

For those successful applicants for permission to stay who are given a BRP, you must check the BRP system before you submit a BRP card production request.

Rights of appeal and administrative review

If an application for permission to stay is refused, applicants cannot exercise a right of appeal in country. However, if they think the Home Office has made an error in considering their application, they can apply for an administrative review. Details of how to make an administrative review application must be included in the decision letter.

If the applicant raises consideration of any of human rights, section 47 and section 55, see:

- Safeguard and promote child welfare
- Section 55 and the child's best interests
- Human rights considerations: Article 8
- ISG 01 19 13 Removal decisions under section 47 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006

Conditions of grant

This section tells you about the conditions of grant that apply to an applicant granted entry clearance or permission on the Temporary Work routes.

Applicants granted entry clearance or permission on a Temporary Work route are subject to the following conditions:

- they can only work for the sponsor in the job stated on their Certificate of Sponsorship (CoS) – exceptions to this are:
 - supplementary employment, which is permitted for Creative Workers, Religious Workers, applicants on the GAE route, and applicants on the International Agreement route as an employee of an overseas government or international organisation
 - Charity Workers – applicants can undertake voluntary work with another organisation, providing it is in the same role as the one listed on their CoS
 - Government Authorised Exchange and Seasonal Workers – applicants can work for any person the sponsor tells them to, providing the work is permitted by the scheme
 - private servants in diplomatic households may take employment as a domestic worker in a different household from the one specified in their CoS
- they cannot access public funds
- applicants who are 18 years old or over need to apply for an Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS) certificate if they wish to undertake study covered by Appendix ATAS of the Immigration Rules

Supplementary employment

As well as the job specified on the CoS, an applicant (except: Charity Workers, Seasonal Workers and applicants on the International Agreement route who are private servants in diplomatic households) can do supplementary work if:

- it is a job that is either:
 - on the Immigration Salary List in Appendix Immigration Salary List of the Immigration Rules
 - in the same profession and at the same professional level as the job for which the CoS was assigned
- it is no more than 20 hours per week
- it is outside the working hours covered by the CoS
- the person remains working for the sponsor in the job for which the CoS was assigned

If the extra work meets the above requirements, the applicant does not need to inform the Home Office before taking extra work.

Related content

Contents