
This publication was withdrawn on 16 May 2024

This poster is now out of date. Check the buy a rod fishing licence guide to see the current prices, buy a new licence, extend a licence or update your details.

Fishing licences now run for a full year from date of purchase

Reel experts buy online

The easiest way to get your licence is by visiting gov.uk/get-a-fishing-licence

There are 3 ways to get your licence:

- Online at gov.uk/get-a-fishing-licence
- Telephone 0344 800 5386 Calls charged at local rate.
- At any Post Office® in England and Wales

Concessionary licences apply if:

- You are aged 65 or over
- You have a Blue Badge parking concession, are in receipt of Disability Living Allowance or Personal Independence Payment

Freshwater fish	2019/20	Salmon and sea trout	2019/20
Non-migratory trout, smelt and eels		AND freshwater fish, non-migratory trout, smelt and eels
Full (12 months) up to 2 rods	£30.00	Full (12 months)	£82.00
Concession (12 months) up to 2 rods	£20.00	Concession (12 months)	£54.00
Full (12 months) up to 3 rods	£45.00	8 day	£27.00
Concession (12 months) up to 3 rods	£30.00	1 day	£12.00
8 day	£12.00
1 day	£6.00

Junior licences (aged 13-16) are now FREE, but you must still get a licence online

Please read the fishing byelaws at gov.uk/freshwater-rod-fishing-rules

Licences are required by those aged 13 years and older fishing for freshwater fish, smelt, eels, trout or salmon in England, Wales or the Border Esk in Scotland