Fee Waiver Request Form: Application for an extension of permission to stay in the UK as a child under Appendix Child staying with a Non-Parent Relative (CNP)

Version: 31 May 2024

This form should be completed from the perspective of the applicant.

The applicant must be under 18.

Each applicant must complete a separate fee waiver request form and submit it alongside their extension of permission to stay application (FLR (P)) under Appendix CNP. The FLR (P) application form is available on GOV.UK:

www.gov.uk/government/publications/application-to-extend-stay-in-uk-as-child-of-a-refugee

If you make a request for a fee waiver using this paper form, your application for an extension of permission to stay under Appendix CNP must be made on an FLR (P) paper application form and both forms must be submitted together.

You must send this fee waiver form along with your permission to stay (FLR (P)) application under Appendix CNP to:

Department 600
UKVI
The Capital
New Hall Place
Liverpool
L3 9PP

Fee waiver requests will be considered before the main application is assessed.

The Home Office will use the personal information you provide to consider your application. We may also share your information with other public and private sector organisations in the UK and overseas. For more detail please see the Privacy Notice for the Border, Immigration and Citizenship system at: www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship. This also sets out your rights under the Data Protection Act 2018 and explains how you can access your personal information and complain if you have concerns about how we are using it.

Section 16: Declaration

Verification consent

The Home Office will check that the information and supporting documentation from a bank or utility company, that you supply as part of this request, is correct. You must sign and return the following declaration to confirm that you consent for the Home Office to request verification checks.

- I have provided a declaration signed by me to confirm my consent for the Home Office to request verification checks.

You should retain a signed copy of this declaration.

Part 1: Consent for the Home Office to verify application information

Part 1: Consent for the Home Office to verify application information

You (the applicant) should sign the Part 1 consent, and relevant other parties should sign Part 2 and 3, where they are relevant to your application. You must send them with your supporting documents. If you fail to do, your application may be refused.

Where any of the information or documentation also relates to someone else (for example a joint bank account or joint utility bill) you should ask that person or persons to sign PART 2 of the consent form.

From the applicant

I understand that the Home Office may check whether the information and documentation that I provide is genuine and correct.

I agree to the provider of the information and documentation telling the Home Office whether it is genuine and/or correct or in what way(s) (if any) it is not genuine and/or correct.

I agree to the disclosure to the Home Office of any relevant data (including personal data) that the provider of the information or documentation holds on me for the above purpose. If I have not supplied correct information or documentation to the Home Office the provider may disclose my relevant correct data (including personal data).

I understand that the information obtained may be used to decide my application and for related purposes.

I understand that providing information or documentation that is not genuine and/or correct will normally result in my application (or subsequent applications) being refused and may lead to my prosecution for a criminal offence.

Part 2: Consent for the Home Office to verify third party information

If any information or documentation provided is in the joint names of the applicant and another person (or persons), the joint owner should sign the following declaration:

The above-named person ('the applicant') has given the Home Office information or documentation and agreed that the Home Office can check that such information or documentation is genuine and/or correct. I am a joint owner with the applicant of some or all of that information or documentation.

I understand that information about the applicant may also reveal information about me.

I agree to the provider of the information or documentation giving the Home Office relevant data (including personal data) that it holds about me. I understand that this only covers data about me in my capacity as joint owner of the relevant information with the applicant (and not about any other information it may hold about me either in my capacity as an individual or jointly together with a third party) and is limited to:

- such relevant data as is necessary to confirm that the information or documentation that the applicant has supplied is genuine and correct;
- if that information or documentation is not correct, relevant data relating to any irregularities, inaccuracies or discrepancies in the information or documentation that the applicant has provided, including as to the correct information that the provider of the information holds.

I understand that this information or documentation may be used to make a decision on the application and for related purposes.

Part 3: Consent for the Home Office to verify information from third party sponsor

If the information or documentation relates to another person or persons who is to provide the applicant with financial support, that person or persons* should sign the following declaration:

I have agreed to provide financial support to the applicant as set out in the application form. I have provided information or documentation to support the application. I understand the Home Office may verify the information or documentation which has been provided.

I agree to the provider of the information or documentation giving the Home Office relevant personal data it holds about me. This is limited to that which is necessary to confirm that the information or documentation the applicant has supplied is genuine and correct. If that information or documentation is not genuine or correct, the provider may give the Home Office details of any irregularities, inaccuracies or discrepancies in the information or documentation, and may also disclose to the Home Office the correct information that they hold.

I understand that this information or documentation may be used to decide the application and for related purposes.

* If the account is a joint account, all owners should sign.

Declaration

By signing this application, you confirm that to the best of your knowledge and belief the following is correct:

- the information in this application
- the supporting evidence for this application

I confirm that:

- I understand that the data I have given can be used as set out in the privacy policy which can be found on the website at: www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship .
- I consent to organisations, including financial institutions, providing information to the Home Office when requested in relation to this application.
- I understand that if false information is given, the application can be refused and I may be prosecuted, and, if I am the applicant, I may be banned from the UK.

I confirm that:

- I am the applicant aged under 18.
- I am the non-parent relative of the applicant who is aged under 18 and I am completing and submitting the application on their behalf.
- I am submitting the application on behalf of the applicant - you must also complete the 'Third party declaration' (part 2 above).

Consent for the Home Office to request verification checks for joint accounts or third party support

Are you relying on evidence from someone else to prove your financial circumstances?

For example, on a joint bank account or a bank account in someone else's name.

Yes

No

Any other person or persons providing evidence to prove your financial circumstances should sign and submit the declaration for third party consent (part 2 above).

If we do not have their consent then we may not be able to take that evidence into account when considering your application, and so your application may be refused.

I understand that by ticking this check box I am giving consent to verification checks. I will provide a declaration signed by each person who is providing evidence to prove my financial circumstances.
