Dear

Freedom of Information: AR/VR Training

Thank you for your email of 20 November 2023 in which you requested the following information:

1. What training have you delivered using AR/VR technology?
2. Are you currently engaging and talking with AR/VR suppliers, and if so who?
3. Which suppliers have you used for AR/VR training and what was their spend in calendar year 2023 to date?
4. What is the percentage split of AR/VR training spend between training delivered to own staff versus training delivered to users of government/public services in calendar year 2023 to date?
5. How much budget have you allocated for AR/VR training for 2023-2024 and 2024-2025 calendar year?
6. What public sector procurement route have you used to procure AR/VR technology from Jan 2021 to date?
7. What public sector procurement route have you used to procure AR/VR design services of education training content from Jan 2021 to date?

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

I can confirm that the Trade Remedies Authority has not delivered AR/VR training and is not engaging with suppliers nor has an allocated budget for AR/VR training.

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original request and should be addressed to Knowledge and Information Management:
