

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: S Byrne

Respondent: The Feel Good Group Limited

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out.

REASONS

1. By a letter dated 27 February 2024 the Tribunal gave the claimant an opportunity to make representations or to request a hearing, as to why the claim should not be struck out because the claim was not being actively pursued and/or because she had not complied with the Tribunal's orders. No response to that letter has been received.
2. The Respondent wrote to the Tribunal again on 9 May 2024 applying for the claims to be struck out. They provided the following information:
 - (i) The Claimant had not attended the preliminary hearing on 27 February
 - (ii) The Claimant had not responded to EJ Singh's letter of the same date
 - (iii) The Claimant had not complied with any case management orders to date

The Claimant was copied into that correspondence.

3. The Tribunal wrote to the Claimant again on 10 May 2024 asking the Claimant to respond to the Respondent's second application for the claim to be struck out and giving her until 17 May to respond. No response has been received.
4. EJ Webster has therefore decided to strike out the Claimant's claim because

- the claimant had not complied with the Order of the Tribunal dated 27 February 2024
 - it has not been actively pursued.
3. The hearing fixed for 24-28 June 2024 not take place.
